

Continental Bank of Canada

When I hear all this, I wonder how these people ever write off their income tax. They must travel extensively. I feel sorry for them. They become small, not in the sense that the hon. member for York-Simcoe (Mr. Stevens) mentioned, but in another sense, the little people.

No. 19 is, François P. Paradis, senior vice-president, who is vice-president and director Premier Properties Limited; vice-president, Niagara Realty of Canada Limited; director, Capital Funds (IAC) Limited; IAC Business Development Funds (Canada) Limited; IAC Business Development Funds Limited; Merit Insurance Company; The Sovereign Life Assurance Company of Canada; Trustee, BM-RT Realty Investment. His home is at 85 Thorncliffe Park Drive, Toronto.

No. 20 is, Allan P. Bolin, senior Vice-President. His home is at 96 Ravebsbourne Crescent, Islington, Ontario.

No. 21 is, L. Guy Gravel, vice-president, Ontario Division. His home is at 26 Skyview Crescent, Willowdale, Ontario.

No. 22 is, W. E. Hoddinott. I apologize, Mr. Speaker. I do not know how to pronounce it. I have never seen the word before. It is rather difficult speaking only one language. He is a vice-president and lives at 126 Edenbridge Drive, Islington, Ontario.

No. 23 is, N. Vincent Keyes, a vice-president. He lives at 1494 West, 40th Avenue, Vancouver. I wonder if he is related to the Keyes who used to be a member of parliament.

Mr. Muir: No; he and I loaded coal together in Cape Breton.

Mr. Peters: No. 24 is, W. McCracken (Elwood), vice-president, administration. He lives at 7 Tullamore Drive, Willowdale, Ontario. You will note, Mr. Speaker, that all these poor people live on either drives or crescents. I do not even live on a street. In fact I am on a rural route.

No. 25 is, Raymond K. Jackson, vice-president; vice-president and general manager, IAC Capital Fund Division; Capital Funds (IAC) Limited; Capital Funds (IAC) Ontario Limited. He lives at 1250 Cloverdale Crescent, Mississauga, Ontario.

No. 26 is, J. Y. Buchanan, vice-president. He lives at 105 Davisville Avenue, Toronto.

No. 27 is, W. P. Davidson, vice-president; vice-president and director, Capital Funds (IAC) Limited; IAC Business Development Funds, Limited; IAC Business Development Funds Canada Limited; vice-president, Capital Funds (IAC) Ontario Limited; IAC Business Development Funds (Ontario) Limited. He lives at 40 Proudbank Millway, Willowdale, Ontario.

No. 28 is, Brian Fraser London, vice-president; president, Niagara Finance Company Limited; Niagara Realty Limited; Niagara Realty Canada Limited; director, Maritime Publishing Limited; Premier Property; governor, Ontario Research Foundation.

Mr. Abbott: Mr. Speaker, I wonder whether the hon. member will permit a question. It is in the nature of a request. Would he be good enough to table his remarks and those of his predecessors because these important facts may be lost to us.

Mr. Peters: Yes, Mr. Speaker, because the translation of my pronunciation of some of the names would make it difficult if done otherwise. I would be prepared to table the remainder without reading them, if this is the wish of the hon. member.

Some hon. Members: Carry on.

Mr. Peters: No. 29 is, W. J. Van Wyck, vice-president, credit. He lives at 505, 355 St. Clair Avenue West, Toronto.

Then there is Claude R. Stewart, secretary; secretary, Niagara Finance Company Limited; Niagara Realty Limited; Niagara Realty Canada Limited. His home is at 1622, 400 Walmer, Toronto. I thought we were talking about IAC. This is Niagara Realty.

Next we have S. S. Ilaqua, treasurer; director, Bruck Mills Limited. His home is at 10 Blaine Drive, Don Mills, Ontario. Janos J. Tors, comptroller. He is "unknowed". R. Hemond, vice-president. He is also "unknowed". The source for all this is the "Directory of Directors, 1975, Financial Post." You Honour can see why the interest of all members is so high in the directors of this corporation. It is because of their widespread interests. May I call it six o'clock, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Deputy Speaker: The hour appointed for the consideration of private members' business having expired, I do now leave the chair until eight o'clock tonight.

At six o'clock the House took recess.

AFTER RECESS

The House resumed at 8 p.m.

GOVERNMENT ORDERS

[English]

ANTI-INFLATION ACT

MEASURE TO ADD NEW DEFINITIONS

The House resumed consideration of the motion of Mr. Macdonald (Rosedale) that Bill C-89, to amend the Anti-Inflation Act, be read the second time and referred to the Standing Committee on Finance, Trade and Economic Affairs.

Mr. Sinclair Stevens (York-Simcoe): Mr. Speaker, before the dinner recess I was saying that in considering the bill before us we must take a look at the over-all program which the government announced under the description of an anti-inflation program; I was pointing out that at the time of the announcement on October 14 last the government stated there were four parts to this program. I was commenting on certain of these parts and indicating that in many ways the government had not been acting with proper restraint.
