

sources, mainly Canadian Indian. There is a very important loan collection of models of canoes of the aborigines of North America, made by Mr. Adney; and the Garstang loan collection, illustrative of Egyptian culture through four millennia. The lay-out of the ethnological material is geographical.

7. THE PATHOLOGICAL MUSEUM.

In a room in the Pathological Building. Controlled by Professor Horst Oertel, Director of the Pathological Institute. Curator, Mr. E. L. Judah, Curator of Museums. The collection of pathological specimens, in glass jars, is a teaching, not a display collection. It is regarded as a storehouse in which all the objects are organized, labelled, and visible, and so readily accessible. Dr. Oertel considers that certain material in the Medical Museum is needed to complete it.

8. THE MUSEUM OF HYGIENE.

The Museum of Hygiene is controlled by Professor A. G. Fleming, Director of the Department of Public Health; the Curator is Dr. T. A. Starkey, Strathcona Professor of Hygiene. It is situated in one large room of the Medical Building. The Museum is concerned with the history and practice of Hygiene. It contains actual specimens and some models illustrating Heating, Lighting, Water Supply, Sanitary Appliances, Drainage, etc. There are no cases, the material being set out on trestles or fixed to rough partitions. Most of the specimens were donated. The collection is used by the Department in the courses in Hygiene given to Arts and Engineering students. A descriptive catalogue of the Museum (now out of print) was issued by Dr. Starkey.

9. THE RUTHERFORD COLLECTION (Experimental Physics).

This collection is housed in the Physics Building, under the control of Professor A. S. Eve, Director of the Department. It consists of a number of objects and materials relating to the discovery of Radium D, E, and F at McGill University by Sir E. Rutherford (now Lord Rutherford), with notes in his own hand; also of equipment with which he carried out his researches. These objects are in a glass-fronted cupboard in the Secretary's office.

10. THE GEOLOGICAL COLLECTION.

A room in the Department of Geology (in the Chemistry and Mining Building) has been set aside for a collection illustrating Economic Geology. It is controlled by Professor J. J. O'Neill, Head of the Department. The collection is organized in a series of fairly good cases.
