

CONTENTS.

v

	PAGE
Minor attempts to evade argument	39
Argument strong; but difficulties great	39, 40
Hence need of Revelation	41

SECOND PART.

THE CHIEF CORNER STONE.—God in Christ.

I. THE MAN.

Relation of Parts I. and II.	45
Preliminary objection against Incarnation	45
A revelation of God to be reasonably expected	46-48
A Human Life the most natural medium	49
The difficulty of I alip and how it was met	50
Analogy from ordinary experience	51, 52
Limitations. Anthropomorphism	52, 53

II. THE CHRIST.

Historical witness to Jesus of Nazareth	55, 56
He claims to be the Revealer of God	57
What kind of credentials does He show?	57, 58
1. His Character	59, 60
2. His Words	61, 62
3. His Works (see Chapter III.)	64

III. THE WORKS.

The prevailing prejudice against "Miracle"	65-67
Various forms of it dealt with	67, 70
Improbability of miracle not a constant quantity	70
The gospel miracles not improbable, but the reverse	71, 72
Failure of attempts to invalidate the evidence	73, 74
Not necessary to lead proof for all the miracles	74, 75

IV. THE RESURRECTION.

The Seal of all the other miracles	77
Unanimous Testimony of Witnesses	78
Fraud, Fancy, or Fact? "Fraud" given up	79
It could not be Fancy	80, 81
Was it any combination of these? The myth theory	82
It must have been Fact	84
Alleged discrepancies dealt with	85
Strength of the evidence	86-88

PAGE

ism, or rather	17
them?	18
	19, 20
	21
	22
	23, 24
	25-28
	28
	29
	30, 31
g process	32
	32-34
indiscernible	35
cloud," proto-	35-37
	38