HEARD LAST CASE BEFORE A CHANGE

Judge Morgan Leaves Criminal County Bench After Thirty Years.

TO SIT IN SURROGATE

Last Prisoner to Appear Before Him Was Allowed to Go.

Judge Morgan, who has occupied the bench in the criminal court for the past twenty-nine years, heard his last case in that court yesterday afternoon, when he allowed Frank McCool, a 19-year-old lad, out on suspended sentence on a charge of false pretences and the uttering of a worthless cheque.

BOY SCOUTS AND CLUB GIRLS WANT TO BE GOOD FELLOWS

Many Letters Are Received Daily From Those Who Want to Give Cheer Where It is Needed—A Real Way to Keep Christmas.

The ones most hit when employment is scarce are the day laborers. In their little homes on Christmas Day the spirit of gladness shrinks before the stalking figures of poverty and cold. And the ones most to suffer are the little children. They must go ill-clad, poorly fed, and on Christmas Day their parents' poverty is most pitifully impressed upon them.

The World Good Fellow will supply you with the name of one of these thousands of children—with a family, if you like—you then get in touch, find out what is needed on wanted, and then supply it.

The idea is simple and is meant to appeal to those who want the happiness that comes from personal giving. And what does it cost to be a Good Fellow? Exactly what you want it to cost. You may measure the children's needs by your own purse. All we ask is that their Christmas be made bright and merry, and that they want not for food. This is the only obligation.

World Good Fellow: I read your notice in The World today, and it just gives me the opportunity I have been looking for. I cannot do very much, but I would like so much to bring a little happiness into some poor little kiddie's life at the Christmas season.

World Good Fellow: Kindly send to my address, as soon as possible, the name of one child, preferably a girl, who requires a Santa Claus this Christmas. I am the president of a girls' club here, and we would endeavor to do our best to make the Christmas of some other little girl a happy one.

World Good Fellow: I would be more than pleased to give you all the assistance I can in helping you in your effort to help the little ones to enjoy a merry Christmas, and it would make my Christmas more enjoyable for me to know I have given some poor little one a little pleasure.
