JOCKEY CLUBS TO GIVE RACES FOR HUNTERS

O. J. C.'s Lead to Be Followed
Elsewhere According to Announcement at Green Bush.

A number of enthusiastic supporters of amateur racing met at Green Bush Lodge for dinner on Thursday evening. Dr. D. King Smith occupied the chair, while A. Lyall Scott acted as secretary. The present were: Dr. D. King Smith, Frank Proctor, Dr. D. Hawthorne, Lyman Goodrich, Dr. R. Scheffer, Dr. K. Hodgson, Geo. Elliott, Lyman Scott, Col. G. T. J. MacCabe, W. Rawlinson, Wilfred Davies, Norman Davies, Dr. J. H. Scott, Dr. A. Lyall Scott, Victor Sifton, John Fleming, R. J. Montgomery and A. MacCabe.

After justice had been done to the excellent dinner prepared by the steward the possibilities for amateur racing were discussed. Dr. Smith announced that the Ontario Jockey Club had decided to re-arrange the racing on the way this news was received their will be no lack of entries and riders for races, both on the track and thru the field.

Dr. Smith also stated that several of the other jockey clubs had under consideration the putting on of races for amateurs. At present were strongly in favor of again holding the Green Bush race meet, which was inaugurated last year, and which was inaugurated last year.

Arranging the details will be called later date.
