CLAUSE THROWN OUT

Commissioner Loses Right to Major McCordick to Assume Cut Trees Without Owners' Consent.

The fast of the firehall investiga ion may be blamed for the suspension for the year of the special city grant to the superannuation fund, This was the point on which the private bills committee of the legislature balked yesterday when the city was seeking the right to contribute $4000 er year for 35 years to the firemen's

Gooderham thought that the subscribers did not pay enough, and after some bickering the whole clause was held over for the year.

Almost by accident the clause giving the city parks commissioner the right to remove trees on boulevards without the owner's or resident's consent, was lost. It was explained that they had the city's aesthetic interests at heart, but members felt that the next commissioner might not be so discreet. Provincial instances were quoted to show it unwise. A last show of hands threw the clause out after the city thought it was won.

The clause allowing the city to inspect all water taps to prevent leakage waste, charging a small fee therefor, was passed without contention.

J. A. Ellis of Ottawa was allowed to practice as a barrister after certain examinations were taken. The case was passed as exceptional, altho the Law Society was unwilling.

Due to Acidity

SO SAYS EMINENT SPECIALIST.

So-called stomach troubles, such as indigestion, wind and stomach-ache are in probably nine cases out of ten simply evidence that fermentation is taking place in the food contents of the stomach, causing the formation of gas and acids. Wind distends the stomach and causes that full, oppressive feeling sometimes known as heartburn, while the acid irritates and inflames the delicate lining of the stomach. The trouble lies entirely in the fermenting food. Such fermentation is unnatural, and acid formation is not only unnatural but may involve most serious consequences if not corrected. To stop or prevent fermentation of the food contents of the stomach and to neutralize the acid and render it bland and harmless, a teaspoonful of bisurated magnesia, probably the best and most effective corrector of acid stomach known, should be taken in a quarter of a glass of hot or SO SAYS EMINENT SPECIALIST. dency of Gen.
