Sons of Temperance Accuse License Board of Moving Tardily.

WANT ACT AMENDED

Would Like to Be Able to Vote on Prohibition by Entire Province.

The sixty-seventh annual convention of the Sons of Temperance, Grand Division of Ontario, came to a close last night in the Metropolitan Church, and the delegates left for their homes this morning.

In their report the committee state that they took the slow round about course of referring the abolition of the bar to the board of five license commissioners.

The society will ask the grand division to secure the following amendment to the Canada Temperance Act: "That the area over which the act may be brought into force that prohibition may be voted upon by a whole province as well as by county or city and that the most efficient means of enforcing the prohibition provisions of the act be made."

YORK COUNTY AND SUBURBS

The Radial Situation. The greatest issue in Toronto today is local traction. North Toronto is in arms; the radial lines are all seeking entrance; outlying districts are deeply concerned as to double fares.

GOLD HEADED CANE FOR WARDEN NIGH

York County Council Paid High Tribute to Popular Official.

PRAISE FOR GOOD WORK. Warden Thanked Colleagues for Support He Received. During Year.

No former event in the municipal life of the county has exceeded in point of enthusiasm and attendance the banquet tendered Warden John Nigh by the members of the York County Council at the Walker House last night.

The admittance of the retiring warden had been marked by more than ordinary progress and harmony between the chief executive and his fellow-members, and his departure from the municipal arena is generally regretted.

Surrounding the tables last night were scores of men prominent in the agricultural, professional and commercial life of the county, each and all of whom bore tribute to the wood work of Warden Nigh.

Nieve J. G. Cornell of Scarborough proved an ideal toastmaster and following that of the "King," which was received with tremendous enthusiasm, "The King and Navy" was responded to by Capt. T. G. Wallace, M.P. for Centre York; Hon. Col. Fraser, 12th York Rangers, and Major Nicholls. The references of Capt. Wallace to the navy and the gallant conduct of the Canadian soldiers were cheered to the echo. In the untimely absence of W. P. Macdonald, M.P. for South York, Hon. Col. Fraser spoke briefly but effectively, drawing attention to the prominent part taken by the 12th York Rangers during the last 100 years in active Canadian service.

The toast of "The County of York Overseas Boys" was replied to by Major Drummond G. Wilson and W. H. Peggler, while Dr. Forbes Godfrey and Geo. S. Henry, M.L.A., were sponsors for "The Province of Ontario."

"Our Gues" elicited a perfect hurricane of applause, and when W. A. Wallace, of King, and Deputy George B. Prager, of Markham, on behalf of the county members presented the warden with a beautiful gold-headed cane, the banquet was brought to a close.

Other interests proposed were York County represented by ex-Warden D. Evans and Horace Ramsden, reeve of West Gwillimburgh, and educational institutions to which A. L. Campbell, Inspector for South York, and C. W. Mulvey, Inspector for North York, responded.

For "The Ladies" Len Wallace, reeve of Woodbridge, and R. A. Fleming, of Markham responded in eloquent addresses.

ORANGEMEN ENTERTAIN FRIENDS AT BANQUET

Members of Parkdale Lodge the Guests of McCormack Lodge Last Night.

McCormack Lodge, L.O.L. No. 2142, banqueted in Colvin Hall last night in honor of visiting Lodge No. 207, Parkdale, and music featured the program for the evening, special numbers being rendered by Mrs. W. O'Brien.

As the banquet progressed an interspersment of toasts and impromptu speeches was provided by the warden, Provincial Grand Master of Ontario, W. Bro. W. B. Lovelock, W. Bro. W. B. Sheppard, Among others present were W. Bro. A. Lalonde, W. Bro. E. W. Butler, W. Bro. J. Findlay (county master of R.B.P.), W. Bro. E. King (St. E. Canon Lodge), Master J. Hendrie occupied the chair.

An over-enthusiastic range in 121 Medford street, last night, at 11:15 p.m. yesterday. Little damage was caused. Mrs. Kelly is the owner and occupant of the house.

LAST CALL COMES TO SCARBORO PIONEER

John Tingle Passes Away at Wexford After Prolonged Illness.

John Tingle, a pioneer of Scarborough Township, died yesterday at Wexford after a long illness. The late Mr. Tingle for years kept a general store and postoffice at Wexford, but for some time had lived on the York town line. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. David Mason and Mrs. Laraway of Wexford. In political life he was a Liberal and a member of Zion Presbyterian Church, Joseph Tingle of Agincourt is a brother.

WRITE DOMINION BOARD

Regarding express companies' delivery service, C. H. Rolph, secretary-treasurer of the Business Men's Association, is in receipt of communication from Secretary H. C. Small of the Ontario Railway and Municipal Board, in which he states that "the express companies are not under the jurisdiction of this board, but under the jurisdiction of the Railway Commissioners, Ottawa."

Small suggests that it might be advisable to write the Dominion Board in the matter.

PLANS BIG MERGER TO REDUCE RATES

Montreal Financier Would Consolidate Grand Trunk Pacific and C.N.R.

PREVENT DUPLICATION

Running Expenses Would Thus Be Cut Down and Haulage Less.

C. J. McConaig, the Montreal financier, who has brought about several utility company mergers within the last few years, has now in view a big project, namely, to merge the Grand Trunk, the Montreal and the Canadian National railways. He has been interviewed by The World, and stated that it was quite probable that there was at least one consolidation of certain lines which would be in the best interests of all concerned.

"I believe," he said, "that some attempt should be made by the government in the near future to bring about the consolidation of the Grand Trunk, Grand Trunk Pacific and Canadian Northern Railways, because each of these lines is operating at a loss. On the other hand, having good distributing lines in the west, which the other two eventually obtain; and the other having the best of eastern facilities, which are also essential to the western road. If these lines are not soon consolidated, there is operating an enormous duplication of some time in the future, and an immense amount of additional capital will be required to lay down parallel lines, which are not really required at all."

Advantages of Amalgamation. "Some of the particular advantages of an amalgamation of these lines will be that there would be an enormous saving in cost of operation each year. The present line built in the west will be found to be sufficient for all the needs of Canada for many years to come, and if these lines are operated in one system and expanded as such, new capital expenditure would be saved as well as operating costs. The present lines, however, are so competitive in cost, and these additional costs can only be made up by higher freight charges all around, so that the amalgamation of these roads along the lines I have suggested would really result in cheaper freights for the public and more economical and better service all around."

Mr. McConaig stated that he had talked over the matter with prominent railway and government officials and that many of them were favorably disposed toward the proposed arrangement, which might also include a traffic arrangement for the C.P.R.

CITIZENS SHOULD NAME FIRE CHIEF

Earlscourt B. I. A. is Tired of Farce at the City Hall.

Postal Deliveries Substation and Four Deliveries Daily Wanted in Northwest Section.

A meeting of the British Imperial Association was held last evening in Earlscourt school. President Henry Parfrey J.P. occupied the chair.

The matter of the Earlscourt district has been treated with regard to necessary improvements during the year was strongly criticised by the chairman. "The following improvements have been shelved," said Mr. Parfrey, "The Lansdowne avenue car line, the new additional routes necessary for the Earlscourt school, the public lavatory at Lansdowne and St. Clair, the new district bus route and other improvements. Instead, we have a woman on an expense for weeks, procuring dumps, and the Lansdowne avenue, it is a downright shame, said Mr. Parfrey. Regarding the appointment of a fire chief, the members suggested a public meeting on the city hall steps and the general body of taxpayers the city be asked to appoint a head for the fire department, owing to the inability of the city council to make the necessary arrangements. Several other suggestions from other members the following resolution was unanimously adopted: "That two delegates be appointed to the Central Firefighters' Organization to bring forward a resolution on the appointment of a fire chief at their next meeting, owing to the inability of the city council to make the necessary arrangements."

MT. PLEASANT BRIDGE ASSUMES POSSIBILITY

North Toronto Citizens' Hope Revived by Report of Commissioner Harris.

North Toronto and Moore Park citizens, who have always been skeptical regarding the statements of Commissioner Harris, that negotiations were under way for the building of the Mount Pleasant bridge over the old Holt Lane, will now have their doubts removed.

Dealing with the matter before the board of control yesterday, Commissioner Harris stated that negotiations of tenders had already been considered and recommendations were submitted. In the event of reinforced concrete being used, the cost would be $46,000, but if a steel and stone erection were favored the cost would be reduced to $33,982, of which $22,000 would be required for the steel and stone work.

No decision will be arrived at until the estimated life of the two varieties is ascertained.

The project for a straight highway thru Mount Pleasant Cemetery has been revived in an effort by the city to acquire the land for a highway to the south of the city, a quarter of a mile long and about which the Mount Pleasant Railway is supposed sometime to run. The proposed bridge at the extreme north of the cemetery.

This is the first tangible indication that something will be done to relieve the traffic congestion in the north part of the city.

LADY AGED AND ALONE IS AT DEATH'S DOOR

Mrs. Martha Rogers Found Unconscious in Street, Sinking Rapidly.

Said to be without a friend in the city, also she has stated that a son of hers is in the Mimico Asylum and that she has a sister named Susan Hayes, Mrs. Martha Rogers, who was found lying unconscious on Victoria street on Sunday night last, is dying in St. Michael's Hospital, to which she was removed in the police ambulance. Her end is expected at any moment.

Mrs. Rogers, who is about 70 years of age, lived alone at 121 Duke street after working at McLaren's Printing Co., Colborne street. She is known to have been ill for some time past and it is thought that she had fallen on the street from exhaustion. The stories she told the hospital officials regarding her relations were contradicted by her after-wards, and she is thought to have been ill for some time past and it is thought that she had fallen on the street from exhaustion. A POOR JOB.

A small boy was taken to see the pike. He looked at them thoughtfully and asked, "Did God make pike?" "Well," he replied, "I should have thought He'd have made something a little pleasanter."

PEOPLE MUST GET BACK TO OLD FOLK SONGS

Modern Development of Drama Declared Lacking in True Cultural Value.

Drama was dealt with from a community standpoint in the lecture given by Percival Chubb, president of the Drama Club of America, before the Toronto branch of the league, at the Conservatory of Music, last night. The modern development of the drama, in the theatrical world, was said to be lacking in true cultural value, and the speaker said that the people would have to get back to the old folk songs and dances as the true expression of art in the national life.

The development of the drama from the standpoint of popular culture was said to be a great ideal which America had fallen far short of attaining. The speaker said that the people would have to get back to the old folk songs and dances as the true expression of art in the national life.

POOR JUDGMENT SHOWN SAYS CORONER'S JURY

Otherwise Accident on University Gymnasium Would Not Have Occurred.

After eight sittings the jury under Coroner J. W. Elliott at the morgue last night, enquiring into the death of William McGee, one of the laborers killed at the university gymnasium when a chimney being erected collapsed, returned a verdict that McGee died as a result of being crushed by the fallen brick. A rider was added to the verdict stating that the jury were of the opinion that there was fault in construction, and that the same fault also appeared in exhibit one. The rider also stated that had the support wall been carried up the accident would not have occurred. Poor judgment had been shown by the contractor in construction, they thought, or the accident would not have occurred.
