

will never be
Great Creator.
His works will signs, and the
and harmony
of propriety in our personal
the example of
ble, engaging,
reverence and
pure, yet affa-
e shall avoid
ill. We shall our manner of tentation and
generous and
ney belong to m the haunts
f Nature, and
eing with the

in our social vagance and
nall, as given
o them in the k to lead the sensuous and
enjoying real
ral and inno-
o their physi-
which leave

posit of truth
y and soberly
serve that re-
will make it
nt candour to
the world.