

bers of the Police, that when occasion requires, the sphere of their duties is the entire City of Halifax; and that they are liable to be called into service for any portion of each day if necessary.

XXXVIII.—Every Policeman will be furnished with a book, in which shall be noted by him:

- 1st. The time he takes to pass over his beat.
- 2nd. What violation of law he sees or attends to.
- 3rd. The doors or entrances of stores or houses accidentally open; and whom he notified thereof, or what protection he afforded.
- 4th. What alarms of fire he gives, and the time; and his position when he hears an alarm given by others.
- 5th. All nuisances on his route, so that they may be removed without delay.
- 6th. All bad and dangerous places on the sidewalks, and in the streets; first securing them from danger to the public.
- 7th. All cases of wanton or unnecessary waste of water, by night or day.
- 8th. Any other offences against the ordinances of the City, names of offenders, witnesses, &c.

XXXIX.—Each Policeman must remember that a violation of either of the above rules will be sufficient cause for discharge, and that for every vacancy which occurs there are at all times applications from those who promise fidelity to the service.

SERGEANTS OF POLICE.

XL.—Each Sergeant when appointed shall consider himself engaged so long as he shall give satisfaction; he will be held responsible for the good conduct of the men placed under his charge; and it is expected that he shall
