Wesley, (Charles,) Life of.

Life of Charles Wesley; comprising a Review of his Poetry, Sketches of the Rise and Progress of Methodism, with Notices of Contemporary Events and Characters. By Rev. THOMAS JACKSON. With a Portrait.

8vo., pp. 800. Plain sheep.....	$1 75

Calf gilt.....	2 50
Calf extra.....	3 00

The name of Charles Wesley will ever be in honourable remembrance as the coadjutor of his brother in that extensive revival of true religion which distinguished the last century, and as the author of the greater portion of those incomparable hymns, the use of which has, for nearly one hundred years, formed so prominent a part of the devotions of "the people called Methodists." Although more than fifty years have passed away since he rested from his labours, there has been no separate memoir of his life until the appearance of the present volume, which is, in many respects, one of the most interesting and important works on religious biography that has issued from the press for many years. It is chiefly prepared from the journals and private papers of Mr. Wesley, which were kept in his family till the death of his daughter in 1825, when they became the property of the Wesleyan Conference. No Methodist preacher should be without it

Wesleyan Preachers, Memoirs of Several.

Memoirs of several Wesleyan Preachers, principally selected from Rev. T. Jackson's Lives of Early Methodist Preachers, and the Arminian and Wesleyan Magazines.

12mo., pp. 346. Muslin..... $0 65

It will not be easy to read their histories, so evidently truthful, without being profited. Dr. Clarke, in a letter to a young preacher, says, "Make yourself familiar with the works of Mr. Wesley and Mr. Fletcher, and read the lives of the early Methodist preachers."

An important addition to our means of acquainting ourselves with the early history of Methodism. A work to be read by all lovers of eminent examples of piety and zeal.—Methodist Quarterly Review.

Harris on Covetousness.

Mammon; or, Covetousness the Sin of the Christian Church. By Rev. JOHN HARRIS.

18mo., pp. 249. Muslin..... $0 23

A work which, almost beyond any other of the present day, has secured the approbation of the public. A more pointed and searching exposure of the secret workings of covetousness can scarcely be found. The late Andrew Fuller says:—"The love of money will, in all probability, prove the eternal overthrow of more characters among professing people than any other sin, because it is almost the only crime which can be indulged, and a profession of religion at the same time supported."

Golden Maxims.

Golden Maxims; or, a Thought, Devotional and Practical, for every Day in the Year. With an Index to Authors' Names. Selected by Rev. ROBERT BOND.

32mo., pp. 112. Muslin, gilt edges..... $0 25
