

any pay for such business, other than the usual professional fees for the services he may render.

TWENTY-NINTH.

The writing up of the depositors' books may be divided among the several officers of the Bank under such regulations as the Cashier may direct.

THIRTIETH.

The present assignment of duties to the several officers of the Bank, shall not exclude the right of the board to alter and increase the same at any time, as the interest of the Bank may in their opinion at any time require, and the respective officers thereof shall accept of their offices subject to this regulation.

THIRTY-FIRST.

In case of the absence of either of the respective officers from the Bank, in consequence of sickness or other unavoidable cause, it is their duty forthwith to acquaint the Cashier thereof, in order that arrangements may be made to supply their places until they can again enter upon their respective offices.

THIRTY SECOND.

So soon as a permanent provision for the services of the President shall be made, he shall not directly or indirectly use trade or business of any kind on his private account, but devote himself entirely to the superintendence of the affairs of the Bank. And no officer or other person connected with the Bank shall directly or indirectly, in any way or manner whatever, take or receive any perquisite, reward, fee, or emolument, for any services done therein, other than the salary allowed by the Bank, and it shall be the particular duty of the Cashier, to see that this regulation is at all times carried into full effect or to report
