ONE CURB IS REMOVED

Washington, Dec. 6.—All time limitations on trading in future deliveries of corn, oats, rye and barley, were removed today by the food administration. Present conditions, the announcement said, do not warrant abrogation or modification of present limitations on speculative account. tion of present limitations on the tive account.
Restrictions annulled by the food administration prohibited trading in excess of 200,000 bushels by any single interest, and forbade dealings that involved deliveries more than four months in the future. The expected tendency of the removal of the restrictions is to stimulate business here and at other laws grain centres.
