A COMPULSORY PROSPECTUS

Discussion of Mr. Hoyle's Bill Takes Up All Time of Legislature.

A more radical reform in the method of dealing with "wild cat" companies than that outlined in the bill now before the legislature, was made the subject of a strong argument by A. G. MacKay in the house yesterday afternoon. The debate which it brought on occupied almost the whole of a brief four's sitting.

It is not expected that the government will act on the report this year owing to the large amount of other business.

Mr. Hoyle's Bill. The discussion was brought on by the presentation of the bill respecting prospectuses as favored by Mr. Hoyle and assured of government support. Some changes in its provisions were sought, among them the provision that the commission to be paid to any subscriber or one who procured others to subscribe, be by letters patent or supplementary letters patent. Another change is that which strikes out the word "discounts" in relation to the remuneration to brokers for disposing of stock, and in its stead the word "term" itself is used along with the other specific terms "notice, circular or letter of prospectus."

"There is nothing in the bill which covers cases where a company is floated without a prospectus at all," objected Mr. MacKay.

Hon. Mr. Hanna wasn't afraid of the suggested contingency.

The moment a company gets into print at all it will be held to have issued a prospectus," he argued, referring to the sweeping nature of the definition of what a prospectus was.

Mr. MacKay came back with the opinion that it should be made compulsory for agents to show prospectuses to intending subscribers, showing what was set forth in the letters patent. Many cases subscribed for stock who would not do so if they knew that a large portion of the stock was practically a bonus to influential men who had lent their names as directors to help float the company. The speaker cited a case where $250,000 had gone in this way, amounting from $10,000 up to $300,000. He urged that special protection was needed for unwise investors who were induced to invest by the use of men's names.

Goos the Limit. Hon. Mr. Hanna replied that the points raised had been gone into at great length, and that the present bill went so far as it could safely go without causing complications. Mr. MacKay argued that the commission given should be shown in the prospectus or letters patent.

Hon. Mr. Hoyle returned that the bill would prevent brokers from doing other than handling stock on a commission basis. No discounts would be allowed a broker for taking stock on his own account. The provision was for a commission or its substantial equivalent.

Mr. MacKay argued for the insertion of a clause providing that purchasers be advised of what others had paid. Some men paid 100 cents on the dollar and others considerably less.

The premier interposed that if purchasers were to be shown every document, why shouldn't this extend to every business transaction, the vending of land, for instance. All particulars connected with it could be found out at a certain institution, and this was true also of the stock companies.

"But the subscriber might be thousands of miles away from the provincial secretary's department," objected Mr. MacKay, who said he wanted to put a stop to the work of dishonest agents.

Hon. Mr. Hanna said the matter could be discussed later.

Second Readings. Second readings were given Mr. McNeven's bill to make the expiry of the two year term of office for the board of education coincide with that of the proposed two year civic term, and Dr. Jamieson's bill to allow cement and concrete structures to be included in fire limits with brick and stone structures. Several other bills were read a second time.

Little was allowed to introduce a bill respecting the North Midland Railway, although no petition had been presented and the time had passed. The premier explained that the petition had been lost and was found only on Monday.

Awful Cruelities. Moscow, March 26.—M. Tegliko, counsel for Mile. Spiridonov, the 17-year-old girl who shot M. Luzhenskoy, chief of the secret police at Tamboff, and who was found guilty of the charges, declares that the tortures of the Spanish inquisition were tame when compared with the cruelty the girl has been subjected to.

Sells Fine Summer Home. Detroit, March 26.—Mrs. Alice H. Robinson, who has been residing in Toronto for several years, has sold her summer home on Grossa Isle, Detroit River, considered one of the finest on that island, for $200,000. The purchaser is the wife of a Philadelphia millionaire.

Bank & Co., Limited. Those at distance will find this a very convenient way of selecting their traveling needs. Mail or phone orders promptly attended to.

Newspapersman's Death. New York March 26.—Charles G. Holland, who has been connected with the New York office of the Associated Press for about forty years, died of Bright's disease to-day. He was 60 years old.

Kaiser's Tour Off. Berlin, March 26.—Emperor William's proposed Mediterranean cruise has been abandoned. It had been delayed to await the outcome of the Algerian conference, and it is too late.

Off to Siberia. Tiflis, Caucasus, March 26.—The governor-general has departed to Siberia five employees of a small bakery who recently went on strike.

CARPENTERS HARD HIT POOR WINTER FOR WORK

Employment Has Been Scarce, While Fewer Men Left City to Look for Jobs Elsewhere.

The prospects for spring have not yet alleviated the troubles of the carpenters and other men engaged in the building trades. For the last few months the employment agencies for non-union men have been besieged by crowds of work hunters. The union carpenters practically live around the Labor Temple when out of work, and the union business agents are kept hustling for even odd jobs.

The men say that this winter has been one of the worst in the history of the country despite the open weather. In fact the men think that the open winter of 1905-6 was the greatest obstacle in the way of work, as the men did not expect to be laid off and consequently did not leave town for the States as many do during the winter months, and found themselves without work or capital.

At present the Amalgamated Society of Carpenters has 75 members of the union out of work on its books, and at one time during the winter 175 men belonging to this union were out of work.

The Brotherhood Union is in almost the same position, and it will not be until the end of April, that work will be plentiful.

One more reason why the building trades are handicapped and cannot enforce the new working card of the Federated Council of the Building Trades is the fact that the bricklayers have a clause in their agreement with the Builder's Exchange whereby the union promises not to go on a sympathetic strike should the other unions engaged in construction work so desire.

Both the carpenters and the builders' laborers are contemplating a stand-out for increased wages, the carpenters having already signified their intention of asking for a raise.

The plumbers have demanded an increase in the rate of the bill will be a cream unwilling to comply in view of the heavy losses they recently incurred by litigation.

ALCOHOL CHEAPER THAN OIL

If Committee's Suggestion Goes Through—Will Revolutionize Things.

Washington, March 26.—The free alcohol sub-committee of the house committee on ways and means to-day agreed to report a free alcohol bill to the full committee Wednesday next. The feature of the bill is that it takes the internal revenue tax off denatured domestic alcohol for technical uses, including lighting, heating and motor uses.

The bill, if passed goes into effect three months from date of its passage. Details of its administration are left with the treasury department. It is predicted the effect of the bill will be a revolution in heating, lighting and furnishing fuel for motors, as alcohol will be cheaper than kerosene oil or gas-oil, and can be made from any grain, vegetable, root or fruit containing starch.

Jefferson City, Mo., March 26.—To-day when the convicts of the penitentiary were called for breakfast, Guard J. W. Woods of Macon, Mo., was stabbed three times by a convict and died instantly. Another guard immediately killed the convict.

The convict's name was "Sonny" Anderson, colored, and he was under sentence for assault to kill. He had been troublesome for several days and had been kept in cell. He was let out this morning with other prisoners, but Guard Woods was ordered to return him to the cell.

Other guards and several convicts rushed to the rescue of Woods, and Anderson began slashing right and left, and injured two other convicts, one of them probably fatally.

Believing it impossible to capture Anderson alive, the guards finally shot him to death.
