Adventure in Search of a Helen Boat-A Public Holiday. On the lake beach just below the point where the Kingston and Markham roads unite, Mr. Levy Annis, executive of Scarborough, has kept under lock and key a fine motor launch, a cushioned boat for the diversion of himself and friends. On Tuesday afternoon two of his friends, who had borrowed the boat for the purpose of going to a boat house, found the door open and boat, oars, cushions, etc., gone. Lying nearby about a stone's throw from the shore was a stonemason, which, as the two inquired from him, he pointed to a man who was standing with a wheelbarrow and a sack of cement. The man was seen to get into the boat and the stonemason's outfit was on board. The "hooker" was now heading for the city, and, getting a buggy, Mr. Levy Annis and his friends followed along the road to East Toronto, where Constable "Dickers" was picked up and driven to Victoria Park to let him get a glimpse of the crew to be arrested. Dickers had no money, and with his aid the names of the boat were seen. Before either purchaser or pursuer reached Toronto, however, the clue worked upon was crossed by the news that two residents of Scarborough, fully described, who said they had lost the key, borrowed an axe on Monday to break open the boat-house door. The buggy party returned and arrested John Matthews, a Scarborough laborer, who confessed his sin and now lies in Toronto Jail. His accomplice is still at large. The case comes up on Saturday. The 24th of June, the day of the Big Bear picnic to Toronto Village, was proclaimed a public holiday in East Toronto Village. A bylaw has been passed prohibiting all vehicles except perambulators and invalids' tricycles from using the sidewalks of East Toronto Village under penalty of a fine of from $1 to $5 or 30 days in jail.
