WRECKED FERRY AT SARNIA

What ferry James Beard looks like now, as it lies alongside the Mackenzie, Milne & Co. dock at Sarnia, into which it crashed during a fog. Fortunately all passengers escaped. The vessel is now in 20 feet of water, and the lighter Manitique is at work raising the sunken hull.

ENEMY IS STOPPED; ALLIED ARMS HAVE PARRIED DISASTER

New Blow at Some Point Which Allies Have Weakened Can Now Be Expected—Who Is Character of War Has Changed—Foch's Strategy Scoring Heavily.

(BY FRANK H. SIMONDS.)

NEW YORK, June 3.—The end of the first week of the third German drive is marked by the announcement of a substantial check of the enemy along the whole front. This coincides exactly with the experience of the earlier drives in Picardy and in Flanders, and barring any accidents—always possible in war—it seems safe to say that for the moment the worst is over, and that the present German offensive with relatively slight further gains will be pinned down between Noyon and Arras. To use the phrase of Foch, two months ago, the German flood again appears dammed.

But it is essential to recognize that a second German blow is now almost inevitable. The highest estimate of German divisions used in the present attack does not pass fifty, and it is a matter of common agreement that at least an equal number are available for a new drive wherever the German high command may choose to put them in. And we may safely guess that the German blow will be delivered against that portion of the line which has been most weakened to meet the present emergency.

With the pause in the present operations comes the opportunity to analyze a little the meaning of the three untimely successes scored by the Germans in the first ten weeks of the campaign of 1918. It is plain that they are now in a transitional period between the war of position, which endured from the close of the first battle of Ypres to the opening of the second battle of the Somme, and a war of movement, comparable with the campaign of 1914.

NERVES COLLAPSED, COULD GET NO SLEEP

Petrolea Lady Suffered Complete Nervous Breakdown—In a Bad Way Until a Friend Suggested the Food Cure.

Petrolea, Ont., June 3.—There are many people in this district who have reason to be thankful to friends for the recommendation of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and Mrs. Thomas is one of them, as you will learn by reading her letter.

"There are not many things more distressing than being unable to rest and sleep at night, and this is about the most marked symptom of nervous exhaustion. Narcotics and opiates afford only temporary relief at great expense to the nervous system. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food removes the cause by building up the nervous system, and is, therefore, the most natural and most rational treatment obtainable."

Mrs. R. Thomas, Eureka street, Petrolea, Ont., writes: "For over two years I suffered with my nerves; sometimes I would break down completely, and be in bed for a week at a time. I never could get any sleep until about three or four o'clock in the morning. A friend of mine one day advised me to try Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and a treatment of this medicine proved to be just what I needed. It soothed my nerves, made me sleep at night, and strengthened me in every way. I continued using the Nerve Food until I was completely recovered. Now I would have no hesitation in recommending it to anyone suffering from nervousness or rundown system."

"I am acquainted with Mrs. Thomas, and believe her statement to be correct," Thomas Kelly, Postmaster.

Almost everybody who uses Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is greatly pleased with the results obtained, and after a third of his allotted time has expired he has done neither. He has been more successful in France than was Napoleon in 1813 in eastern Germany; yet Napoleon lost Leipzig and the Germans crossed the Rhine at the end of 1813.

The German is paying for his gains by losses which equal if they do not exceed the cost to the Allies. And each month the Allied losses are being made up in large measure by the arrival of American troops, while the German is compelled to draw down the population to meet his losses. So far as the German is concerned, the situation is not in an effort to translate his local success into a general victory. In the days of the Marne he had used up his reserves in advance of the decisive battle.

Running into Peril. This is the peril for him now, and this is the object of Foch's strategy. If the minor successes cost the Germans too much they will be unable to deal the great blow at the end.

At the present moment the German advance is approaching, but it is not yet quite ready to strike. The German line is now on the great forest of Compiègne, and the French lines are now on the great forest of Compiègne, and the French lines are now on the great forest of Compiègne.

War Risk Rates Bound

NEW YORK, June 3.—War risk rates took an abrupt jump upon news of the German submarine warfare on this side of the Atlantic. Underwriters advanced insurance from one to two per cent to all ports, and it was stated that the rates might go even higher if the menace was not eliminated.

Viscount French Is Calling for Irish Recruits

Voluntary System Is Invoked in Proclamation—No Conscription?

DUBLIN, June 3.—(By the Associated Press.)—The lord lieutenant issued a proclamation tonight asking for 50,000 voluntary recruits and thereafter 2,000 to 3,000 monthly to maintain the new division.

The first call is to men 18 to 27 years of age, and every man is invited to offer himself for enlistment to insure that land shall be available for the men who fight for their country.

Canadian Waters Guarded Against Sub Operations

OTTAWA, June 3.—The Evening Citizen says: "The news that German submarines are off the Jersey coast and are attacking American ships arouses a natural apprehension lest Canadian waters be next to be visited by the naval service department, whose operations are always veiled in secrecy, had it been known that beyond intimating that the service is prepared fully for any such eventualities."

It is known that at all important bases an effective patrol service is maintained, and every vessel in the harbor is taken care of to the extent and character and location of such patrol service is not made public. It is sufficient to say that there is no ground for alarm.

ANTI-TANK GUN IS AMONG LARGE BOOTY CAPTURED BY HAIG

Good Haul of Prisoners and Material Made Below Strazeele.

LONDON, June 3.—Field Marshal Haig's report tonight from British headquarters in France reads: "The number of prisoners captured by us in last night's successful operations at Strazeele was 288. We also captured a German anti-tank gun, in addition to 30 machine guns and several other weapons."

"On the remainder of the British front there is nothing of special interest to report."

MAN-POWER CENSUS WILL BE COMPILED AT TORONTO CITY

OTTAWA, June 3.—As a first step in a policy of decentralization of government work it is announced that when the compilation of the results of the man-power census is made it will be done in Toronto instead of Ottawa. The reason assigned is that the census is a matter of local interest and as a result clerical help, office and housing accommodations are all at a premium. The work will be of a temporary character. The civil service commission will advise the necessary staff and make selections from the civil service. A portion of the staff will be French-Canadian.

ALL OFFICERS OF PERMANENT FORCE ORDERED TO REVERT

OTTAWA, June 3.—The militia department has ordered all officers of the permanent force who are qualified for service in the militia to revert to the militia. It is a question of policy to have them revert to the militia at once and be prepared to revert to the ranks. An order to revert to the militia was passed some time ago, but it has been neglected to consider the effect of the order applies to officers who have been in the militia for a long time and whose services are not considered to be satisfactory or complete.

NO MORE CLASS "B" MEN NEEDED FOR AN INDEFINITE WHILE

OTTAWA, June 3.—Orders have been sent out by the military service council to registrars not to call up any more B class men. All that are needed for the present have been secured. If any more are required by the military authorities additional calls will be made. It is a question of policy to have them revert to the militia at once and be prepared to revert to the ranks. An order to revert to the militia was passed some time ago, but it has been neglected to consider the effect of the order applies to officers who have been in the militia for a long time and whose services are not considered to be satisfactory or complete.

GAS IN THE STOMACH IS DANGEROUS

Recommend Daily Use of Magnesia To Overcome Trouble Caused by Fermenting Food and Acid Indigestion.

Gas and wind in the stomach accompanied by that full, bloated feeling after eating, are almost certain evidence of the presence of excessive hydrochloric acid in the stomach, creating so-called "acid indigestion."

"Acid stomachs are dangerous because too much acid irritates the delicate lining of the stomach, often leading to gastritis, accompanied by serious stomach ulcers. Food ferments and sours, creating the distressing gas which tends the stomach and hampers the normal functions of the vital internal organs, often affecting the heart."

It is the worst of folly to neglect such a serious condition or to treat with ordinary digestive aids which have no neutralizing effect on the stomach acids. Instead get from any druggist a few ounces of Blaud's Magnesia and take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water right after eating. This will drive the gas, wind and bloated right out of the body, and prevent its formation, and there is no sourness or pain. Blaud's Magnesia (in powder or tablet form—never liquid or milk) is harmless to the stomach. Inexpensive to take, and the best form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.
