FIVE DAYS' MARCH

Units Will Then Take Train From Toronto to Their Destination.

CAMP BORDEN, Sept. 27.—Dates and routes in connection with the trek of the battalions from Camp Borden and from Niagara camp to the towns where they will be quartered this winter were announced today by Col. H. C. Bickford, general staff officer. The numbers or names of the battalions the are not yet ready for announcement. The schedule for the trek shows however that five of the announcement. The schedule for the trek shows, however, that five of the battalions to be quartered in Toronto will be units now at Camp Borden,

The first units to leave Camp Bor-den will be battalions hailing from the train to Oshawa.

Five units which will winter in Toronto will leave here on 9ct. 28, 24, 25, 26 and 27, reaching Toronto on Oct. 27, 28, 30, 31 and Nov. 1. The route to Toronto will be via Alliston, 13 miles; Fennell, 14 miles; Helland Landing, 12 miles; Thornhill, 20 miles; Toronto (Exhibition Park), 15 miles. The trek to Toronto will take each battalion five days to accomplish.

Eleven Will Trek to Toronto.

Hamilton will be the destination of an additional five battalions to trek from Camp Borden. Their tramp over-land will mean a total march of 95 miles. These units leave here on Oct. 16, 17, 18, 19 and 20, acriving in Hamilton on Oct. 28, 24, 25, 26 and 27. These daily marches have been scheduled: To Alliston 13 miles, Schomberg. 19, Woodbridge 17, Islington 11, Lorne Park 12, Merton 13, Hamilton Armories 16. Each unit will take eight days for the trek. On Sunday, Oct. 22, they will rest at whatever town they reach on the Saturday night. The first battalion to reach Hamilton will proceed by train the same day, Oct. 23, to winder questions at Niegore Follow. of Eucourt L'Abbe.
