Sensation at Athens.
The correspondent of The Morning
Post at Athens sends the following under date of August 19: The Bulgarian offensive along the hole Macedonian frontier has created a great sensation here. Yes-terday's prolonged cabinet meeting discussed at some length the situa-tion thus created for Greece, and three generals commanding Mace-donian division, who are attending the annual army council here, were summoned to the cabinet meeting to give their views.

The cabinet finally decided to await further developments before arriving at definite decisions. Never-

Fighting at Florina.

The London Times correspondent at Saloniki sends the following under date of August 20:

Some sharp fighting occurred yesterday in the vicinity of Florina, the Serbian outpost being captured along the Bulgarian advance while slowly retiring on their main positions west of Ostrovo. The fire of the new Serbian artillery is said to have inflicted heavy losses on the Bulgarians. "A squadron of Bulgarian cavalry charging a Serbian battery on the Koritza by the Bulgarian troops is confirmed. News from an official source says that the German field marshal, August Von Mackensen, is with the Bulgarians.

The militory movements of the entente allies are hindered by the flight of the civil population before the Bulgarian advance.

Kastoria is 25 miles south of Monstir on the extreme left of the entente front in Macedonia. It lies about 30 miles couthwest of Florina, and its occupation indicates that the Bulgarians are pressing southward their movement ion the allied left flank. Koritza is 20 miles northwest of Kastoria.

Field Marshal Von Mackensen was reported at Kovel in July to direct operations against the Russians in Voihynia.
