"Lock and Prevent Tearing"

Letter From Mlle. Alice Verlet—

April 28, 1936.

Tonge Stee, Tonge Stee, Toponto,

I have enjoyed immensely the use of your splendid Williams Player-piane and the music rells you so kindly sent me.

The re-production of hand-playing on this instrument is fast coming to the point where it compares with the re-production of the human voice on the Phonograph, which is saying a great deal, and certainly Camada should be proud of the quality of your plane, both in teme and the possibilities for expression.

With appreciation.

street, lovely with its Easter decorations, was the scene of a wedding on Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock, when Emma Dorothy, second daughter of Mr. Francis A. Eddis and the late Mrs. Eddis, was married to Mr. Albert Roland McMichael, eldest son of Mr. A. J. W. McMichael. The Rev. Chartes Howell, assisted by Rev. W. E. Castell, officiated. The bride, who was given away by her father, looked very pretty in ivory duchess satin, with an overskirt and drapery on the corsage of exquisite Brussels lace, an heir loom in the Patrick family, which had been used on the wedding gown of the bride's mother. The skirt was long, with a court train hanging from the shoulders. The tulie veil was held with orange blossoms, and she carried roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Mary Eddis was her sister's bridesmaid, and wore a pretty frock of blue crepe de chine, with Brussels lace. Her large black hat was trimmed with blue to match the gown, and pink roses, and she carried an armful of pink roses, and she carried an armful of pink roses, Mr. C. W. McMichael was his brother's best man, and the three ushers were Mr. B. W. Seton, Mr. W. G. Drysdale and Mr. W. A. M. Cook. A reception was held afterwards at the house of the bride's father, in Wheeler avenue, where the rooms were fragrant with pink roses. Mrs. Hubbard, an aunt of the bride, assisted in receiving. Later Mr. and Mrs. McMichael left for the north on a short wedding trip, the bride traveling in a smart tailor-made of Russian green, and hat to match. On their return they will reside at 286 Beech avenue.
