

The Evening Times

VOL. V, No. 230

ST. JOHN, N. B., TUESDAY, JULY 6, 1909

EIGHT PAGES—ONE CENT

ARRANGEMENTS WILL HAVE GREAT TIME ON MONDAY

Celebration of "the Glorious Twelfth" This Year Will Be the Greatest St. John Has Ever Seen—2,500 Followers of King William Will Be in Line—A Stand for Temperance

Always strongly supporting the cause of temperance, the Royal Orange Association has this year come out stronger than ever in its favor. At the big Orange demonstration to be held here on July 12th, any member of the order seen under the influence of liquor will be summarily dealt with by his lodge, and, if at all disorderly, will be at once handed over to the police.

TWO MORE BIG GOLD FINDS

British Columbia Has Two Important Placer Gold Discoveries—Gold as Coarse as Wheat

Victoria, B. C., July 6.—(Special)—By a freak coincidence, two placer gold discoveries, both of which promise important gold mining camps, have been made almost simultaneously within a day's travel respectively of British Columbia's two chief cities, Vancouver and Victoria.

Probate Court Estate of Mary E. Salter, widow. Last will proved whereby deceased gives to Robert Foster of Vernon, British Columbia, $25, to her son George C. Salter, $50, to Sidney W. Salter, $50 and after disposing of some silver and jewelry the rest gives to her daughter Elizabeth Vose Salter, and nominates R. Morton Smith and the said daughter executors.

YORK MUNICIPAL COUNCIL AID A RAILWAY PLAN

Warden Hinchey Calls Upon the Residents of York to Demand a Railway from "The Powers That Be"—New Brunswick's Most Pressing Need at the Present Time.

Fredericton, N. B., July 6.—(Special)—York Municipal Council met in semi-annual session this morning. The proceedings opened with prayer by Rev. H. MacDonald, after which Warden Hinchey delivered his annual address. He spoke of the recent forest fires, and expressed the hope that settlers when clearing land would take every precaution to prevent fires from getting beyond control.

BANQUET CLOSING CHAMPLAIN FETES

President Taft Will Be Dined Tomorrow By New York Commission—This Closes Celebration on New York Shore.

New York, July 6.—President Taft, who arrived here from Norwich, Conn., by special train at 3 a. m. today left at 7:45 for Albany, en route to the Lake Champlain celebration. The president will spend this afternoon sightseeing at Old Fort Ticonderoga and at Tintarburg, and will spend the night at the TROOP CAMP at Blue Point, Tennessee.

NEWS FROM FREDERICTON

Court Case on the Divorce—The Street Railway and the Suspension Bridge

Fredericton, N. B., July 6.—(Special)—Judge McKenna presided at the regular term of the divorce court which opened here this morning. The docket is made up as follows: Lemuel A. Curry vs. Mary Elizabeth Curry and counter suit, Beulah L. Harris vs. Edward A. Harris, Sarah A. Saunders vs. W. A. Saunders, Sarah Bell Harris vs. Walter W. Harris.

THE CARLETON LOTS Louis Coste, of the public works department, Ottawa, called upon Mayor Balch this morning to discuss matters connected with the transfer of the Carleton lots to the government. Mr. Coste is desirous of informing himself as to the progress of negotiations, as the improvements to the west side facilities depend largely on this project being satisfactorily worked out.

THE TIMES NEW REPORTER

HIRAM SEES THINGS "Well, well, well!" cried Mr. Hiram Hornbush this morning. "Right or wrong, 'o' hayin' the farmers has got to shine up their boots in the fat calf, Hazen's comin'—an' Maxwell's—an' Morrison's—an' Hatheway's—McInerney's—Baxter's—MacRae's—Moisher's—an' I s'pose Grimmer, an' Lanigan, an' McLeod, an' Fleming, an' a lot more. Well, well, well! Hey, what! Strawberry short-cake an' real pie. Green peas an' Washington pie. Talk about city comin' an' summer boardin', by Hen! I calculate the farmers in St. John's don't never see such a procession. Are they 'tornout? Any buglers to call out the populace? Say—if a feller broke one wagon 'gain to the St. John county roads to hear Hazen, if he'd pay the market! I guess it 'ud be easier to walk. The' wuz a fresh egg in the market for a fortnight. No wonder we 'avin' half-mortens in July. Aint that so? Is, by Hen!"

NO DOUBT The news that a revolution has broken out in Colombia is taken here to mean that base ball circles are excited about something. This is not the last revolution, but the next one. The weather is hot in Colombia.

DO LEON LING SHIP ON A STEAMER BOUND TO JAPAN?

New York Police Now Believe They Have an Excellent Clue to the Whereabouts of Elsie Sigel's Murderer—Following Him "East of Suez."

New York, July 6.—In the hope of capturing Leon Ling, the accused slayer of Elsie Sigel, the police have just cabled to several cities on the Mediterranean coast and to points through the Suez Canal. It was last reported that Ling had sailed from Philadelphia on June 12, bound for Iloilo, Japan, and that before sailing her commander, Captain Oetting had shipped several Chinamen as part of the crew. Among these Chinamen who were engaged only a short time before sailing was one well dressed man who spoke good English and who

QUESTION OF SUNDAY TRAINS DISCUSSED BY PRESBYTERY

Resolution Condemning Them Passed After Rev. J. J. McCaskill Made Strong Address in Their Favor—Old Old Jewish Law Not Intended for Modern Days He Says—Other Business Dealt With.

The annual meeting of the St. John Presbytery was held in the parlors of St. Andrew's Church this morning. Rev. A. B. Dickie, the moderator, presided, and there were present: Rev. Dr. W. H. Smith, Fredericton; Rev. Wm. Girwood, Prince William; Rev. Dr. Clark, Chignecto; Rev. M. J. McPherson, Harvey; Rev. H. C. Fraser, Grand Falls; Rev. W. M. C. Brown, Fairville; Rev. F. W. Murray, Glassville; Rev. M. S. McKay, Springfield; Rev. Frank Baird, Sussex; Rev. J. J. McCaskill; Rev. Gordon Dickie, Rev. James Ross, Rev. J. H. A. Anderson, St. John.

CHAMPLAIN MONUMENT

Committee Will Meet Tomorrow to Choose a Site for it

Where will the Champlain monument be placed? This is the next question for the committee having this matter in hand, to decide. The sculptor, Hamilton McCarthy, has written to the mayor, asking that the monument be placed on the site of the granite base as commenced. A meeting of the committee will be held tomorrow to discuss the matter.

POLICE COURT

Before the magistrate this morning Patrolman Ward testified that Richard Walters and John Marr, two Nauyaswank men, drove up King street between 3 and 4 o'clock this morning, and as they were completely under the influence of liquor, they were driven to the police station, and the team was placed in a livery stable.

VINEGAR CASE IS DISMISSED

C. N. Beal Receives Word That He Has Won Liquor Violation Case in Woodstock

C. N. Beal, wholesale liquor dealer of this city, received intelligence this morning of the dismissal by Stipendiary Magistrate Dibble of Woodstock, today, of the charge against Mr. Beal of shipping liquor to Woodstock labeled as vinegar. The allegation was made by the Scott Act advocates, who were represented in the stipendiary's court by Hon. W. P. Jones. The alleged "vinegar" offence was committed last fall, and since the institution of proceedings the case has occupied twenty-five sessions of the lower court, with the result that Mr. Beal is exonerated. He was defended by J. C. Hartley, of Woodstock.

Mrs. Jane R. Fenwick

The death of Mrs. Jane Rosch Fenwick, widow of the late Edwin F. Fenwick, Millstreet, Kings county, took place on Monday, July 5, at the home of her sister, Mrs. Smith, Lower Jernigan. Mrs. Fenwick was the eldest daughter of the late Hon. J. H. Regan. The body was brought to the city on the steamer Elaine, and will be taken to Berwick, Kings county, where the funeral will be held at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

THE FATAL FOURTH

Chicago, July 6.—The Record Herald's summary today of the casualties in the United States of three days' celebration of the Fourth of July gives these most interesting figures: Fire losses are $446,500.