BRADSTREET ON TRADE

New York, March 29—Bradstreets' state of trade tomorow will say:

Bright, warm, almost summer weather, stimulating alike to retail trade and crop progress; a cessation of liquidation in securities and easing of strain in the money markets, so far as the April 1 period is concerned, are the notable favorable conditions this week. Reports as to Easter demand are of a large, in fact, record trade.

On the other hand there are some features tending to conservatism as to the future that deserve attention. Collections are still irregular—backward, in fact—which is attributed variously to slow deliveries of goods, congestion of farm product deliveries, and finally to the heavily increased volume of past trade.

Sales of foundry pig iron for last half delivery are light, but more inquiries seem to be cropping up and the market is firmer in sympathy with the strength in Bessemer pig.

Copper is weaker, with business quiet, as buyers are disposed to hold aloof until conditions become more settled.

Dry goods jobbing at the east is active, the only complaint being slow deliveries of goods by first hands and mills. With agents the demand for distant months' delivery is quieter as indicated last week, but prices show great strength and bleached and printed goods are actually higher. Fine yarn goods for late delivery are quiet. There is more doing in export trade with China. In woolen goods there is more doing in men's wear for fall. Raw silk is higher and the silk trade is active. In raw wool the market is quiet.

Wheat, including flour, exports from the United States and Canada for the week ending March 28, aggregate 2,707,568 bushels, against 1,542,352 this week last year. For the past thirty-nine weeks of the fiscal year the exports are 130,551,045 bushels, against 102,-988,766 in 1905-6. Corn exports for the week are 1,344,523 bushels against 2,643,479 a year ago. For the fiscal year to date the exports are 51,666,856 bushels, against 94,869,760 in 1905-06.

Business failures for the week ending March 28 number 166, against 169 in the like week of 1906.

Slow deliveries of spring goods hamper trade throughout Canada and affect collections which are, however, reported better than for some time past.

Failures for the week number 21, as against 18 in this week last year.

"HOMES, HEALTHFUL AND BEAUTIFUL.

Under the above caption, the Alabastine Co., Limited, of Paris, Ontario, have put out, probably one of the handsomest booklets on home decoration ever issued in Canada. While designed primarily as a catalogue, the book is handsomely illustrated with numerous cuts of the interiors of rooms in colors, and, as well as containing complete information on wall decoration, is filled with many valuable suggestions both pictariol and otherwise on tasteful home furnishing. It is a book which needs only to be seen to be appreciated.

"Homes, Healthful and Beautiful" is gotten out in the form of an edition de luxe, and is too expensive a book to distribute promiscuously to everyone who might write for it merely out of idle curiosity. The Alabastine Co. are therefore making a charge of ten cents for it, which amount, while not nearly covering the cost of the book, is intended to discourage those who would write for it merely to gratify an idle whim.

It is well worth reading. A copy will be mailed to any address on receipt of ten cents.

THE THEATRES

NEXT WEEK'S VAUDEVILLE

Commencing with a matinee on Monday, there will be the usual complete change of programme at St. John's popular vaudeville house, including comic and sensational fare of the usual high order. The Delmar Bros. are comedy acrobats and barrel jumpers, and are assisted by a clever little dog known as "Trouble." They come to St. John well recommended.

Howard & Bolby present a unique and origin-' travesty sketch of the well-known Buster Brown story. The Todesca-Keating trio provide a combination bicycle riding and acrobatic act and are said to be very clever. The Brand Sisters are described as great dancers.

A clever comedy sketch will be furnished by Cumming & Knight, and Walter Stead, the English comedian and singer, will be heard in a number of new songs and the latest illustrated songs of the day will be introduced by the Howards, and there will be an entirely new series of moving pictures on the bioscope.

JELENKO ARRIVES

Many friends were present at the Eastern Steamship Company's dock this afternoon upon the arrival of the steamer "Calvin Austin" to greet N. L. Jelenko and the members of the Lyceum Stock company who arrived today from New York. Mr. Jelenko and his associates were given a cordial welcome to St. John. Tonight the popular actor will be entertained at dinner at the Hotel Dufferin by the directors of the Dominion Amusement Company who were instrumental in bringing this excellent company to St. John. Manager Anderson has received a flood of mail orders for the performance of "The Charity Ball." in which the company will be seen on the opening night Monday, April 8th.

The advance sale will open Monday morning at 10 o'clock promptly at the box office and mail orders will be given prompt attention. Judging from the present indications, the opening performance will be a society event and ovations will be tendered to Mr. Jelenko as well as Frank Powell, Juliette Atkinson, and Harry G. Hockey.

"The Charity Ball," meets with the approval of the discriminating clientele of the Opera House as the opening attraction owing to the fact that the play is conceded to be David Belasco's greatest success and the fact that it is to be given a magnificent scenic production here.

"UNCLE JOSH SPRUCEBY."

The saw mill scene in "Uncle Josh Spruceby" is said to come nearer the genuine article than any of the many stage effects now before the public. "Uncle Josh Spruceby" lays claim to one of the most novel scenes of any piece on the road this season. A full and entirely practical saw mill is placed upon the stage and appropriate scenery is used to make a superior stage picture. When the heroine is rescued from her perilous position at the climax of the act the hearty applause gives evidence of the appreciation of this acme of stage realism.

MOVING PICTURES.

Those who attend the wonderful exhibition of moving pictures at the Opera House, April 4, 5 and 6, will have an opportunity of witnessing some of the most thrilling scenes told on canvas. Other subjects will include comic pictures and funny scenes from all parts of the world, illustrated songs, high class and up-to-date.

A CLEVER CAPTURE

Arthur McLean and Samuel Adams, who claim to be natives of Nova Scotia, were arrested yesterday by Detective Killen. They are charged with stealing a horse and sleigh, set of harness, horse blanket, two fur robes, a couple of fur mats and a chisel and wrench from Eldon Philips' barn in Russiagornis Sunbury county, and offering to sell them to Lee Corser, of South Bay.

The first intimation the local police had of the break was by a telephone message from Fredericton Junction. The case was handed over to Detective Killen, who proceeded to Fairville, and taking Policeman Lawson with him, started along the South Bay road, where they located the culprits bargaining with Mr. Corser, and placed them under arrest.

Meantime Mr. Phillips had boarded the train for the city and the officers with their prisoners drove along to where the track lay close to the roadway the train passed, and Mr. Phillips could be seen at one of the car windows, gesticulating excitedly. Later he came running toward them (having left the train at Fairville) and accompanied them to the city.

OBITUARY

Wellington R. Williams

Apohaqui, N. B., March 29—The death occurred this morning of Wellington R. Williams, son of the late Robert Williams. He leaves a mother, one brother, John, residing in the United States, and one daughter, Gertrude, living at home. The late Mr. Williams has been in poor health for a number of years, but about six weeks ago, he was taken suddenly worse and has since been steadly sinking. The deceased was a barber. He was 47 years of age. His funeral will be held on Monday; service at the house at 1 o'clock, and interment at the family lot at Kierstead Mountain.

Mr. Williams was a free Mason and a Forester.

Thomas P. Devlin

Thomas Patrick Devlin, of 120 St. Patrick street, died yesterday of heart disease. He was aged seventy-six years. Mr. Devlin was born in County Armagh, (Ire.), but had been in this country nearly fifty years. He was a tanner by trade and for many years after his arrival here he worked in the Peters tannery, but of late years he had been employed in the water department.

Deceased had been in failing health since last March, but was not confined to his bed until two weeks ago, since when he grew gradually weaker until the end came. He is survived by his wife, two sons, John J., in Woburn (Mass.); and Harry S., a civil engineer in New York; and five daughters, Kate L., and Mrs. Charles Milligan of South Boston; and the Misses Hattie E., Lena M., and Tessie G., all at home. The funeral will take place on Sunday afternoon at 2.30.

James C. Robertson

James C. Robertson, formerly manager of the Harris car works here, died suddenly on Thursday in Sharon (Mass.), where he had made his home for some years past. The news came in a despatch to Guy DeL. Robinson, of the C. P. R. Mr. Robertson was in his sixty-third year and is survived by his wife, who was Miss Harris, one son Harold S., in Sharon, and two daughters—Mrs. McKenzie, in Sarnia (Ont.), and Miss Kathleen Robertson, at home.

The funeral will take place in Sharon on Monday.

CAMPBELLS XXX CHOPPERS

Campbell Bros. axe manufacturers, inform the Times that they have had to increase their staff of workmen to enable them to keep up with orders coming in for axes for fall delivery. The reason they give for the large demand for their goods is that the old saying, that quality will tell, is being proved in their business, as is shown by the following statement.

This firm, feeling that the demand for cheap goods had about run its limit and that a better class of axes could be sold at an increased cost to the consumer, which necessarily increases the cost of making, they decided in 1903 to make something in the axe line which they could guarantee to their customers. The first year's sales were far more than they expected, being a new brand in the market, and much higher in price, but they were much pleased to soon find out that the people appreciated their endeavor to give them exactly what they said they would, the best axe at a paying price. As each season comes along the demand for Campbell's XXX choppers increases greatly as in the year 1906 their order book shows a larger output than in any previous year and from present indications 1907 will show a still greater majority than in 1906.

The reason Campbell Bros. explain for XXX choppers becoming so popular with the woodsman is that they use the best of material, their mechanics are first-class men, who take pride in turning out good work, which is the foundation and completion of getting the good results which they have accomplished, and which goods they intend keeping up to the standard by close personal attention to the manufacture of their now well known brand of XXX choppers. Their make of ship axes, ship adzes, slices and hatchets bearing their XXX label is also a guarantee of the first quality of edge tools made, and they would advise carpenters and other mechanics who want the best to ask for Campbell's XXX brand and insist on getting them from your dealer who should have them, if not write to Campbell Bros.

Boston, March 29—The British schooner Katahdin, sighted the schooner Rothesay, of Ct. John, N. B., 24 days out from San Domingo, for New York. The Rothesay was flying signals of distress. The Rothesay was not leaking and appeared to be in no immediate danger.

AN EASTER WINDOW

The special Easter window at Oak Hall, King street has been attracting considerable attention and much admiring comment. The lower window has been arranged to represent the choir loft of a church. A large pipe organ occupies the centre of the background, with a figure of a man presiding at the keys. Two boy figures with surplice costumes are standing on either side holding copies of Easter music. The whole effect is most realistic. The foreground is taken up with a showing of the latest Easter styles of suits for boys, youths or men, while neckwear and hats are attractively displayed. In the upper window on King street, gloves, ties, handkerchiefs, collars, shirts, etc., are becomingly arrayed. The windows reflect great credit on Oak Hall's window dresser, Thomas Drummie.

Schooner Robert Ewing, Captain Rafuse, lumber laden, from Halifax, N. S., for New York, which put into Liverpool, N. S., Friday, leaking, met Wednesday's hurricane off Cape Sable. Everything on deck was carried away and the v essel's seams opened.
