The crevasse in the Grand Levee, Point Coupee, is one of the most desistrous which has taken place in Louisiana for many years. The water now makes its way to the Gulf over several parishes which produces the largest amount of sugar of any in the State. These parishes are situated in a low, flat country, composed of alluvial soil and watered by aumerous bayous and lakes. The N.O. Delta says that if some measure is not soon devised to dispense with the (wo days Company Drill of the Militia, as in former years.

FOUR DAYS LATER FROM ENGLAND

FOUR DAYS LATER FROM ENGLAND. The American steamship Pacific, from Liverpool for New York, passed within 50 miles of Halifax on Saturday morning last. She was boarded by the Agent of the Associated Press, and the news sent into Halifax, for transmission to New York, a summary of which was received at the News Room here. The Pacific left Liverpool on the 19th of June, and brings four days later news. She had 60 passengers.

The Liverpool Flour Market was brisk at previous rates. Indian Corn had advanced 6d, per quarter, and large sales had been made for Ireland. The growing crops continue to look un-tricts continue satisfactory. The Money market was easy, and Consols remained without

In the House of Lords, on Monday the 17th, Lord Stanley brought in his promised resoluti-ons on the Greek affair, and after an exciting debate, the Ministry were left in a minority of 37 in a house which numbered over 300 members. As was anticipated, there was some talk of the Ministry resigning, but they had not done of the Ministry resigning, but they had not done so, and we doubt not they will hold on to office.

The London Times infers, that from their silence on the subject of their defeat in the Lords, they ill take no notice of it.

The Bill for the abolition of the Lord Lieu-tenancy of Ircland has passed a second reading in the Commons by a large majority,

The defeat of the British Ministry in the Lords had caused much excitement, and on Thursday in the Commons, Lord John Russell undertook the defence of the Government, and in a speech of considerable effect castigated the House of Lords pretty severely, freely telling them that he cared nothing for any action taken in that Body as regarded the Government, and that not until he had failed to secure a majority in the Commons would he begin to think of resigning.

The accounts from the manufacturing districts still continue satisfactory.

The weather during the past week has been very delightful, and the prospect as Tegards the coming harvest most cheering.
