

LOSES LIFE IN SO. BAY WATER

Alphonsus E. Duffy Falls In; Dies Soon After
Had Been Cutting Ice—Coroner Decides Inquest is Unnecessary

Shock and exposure, following a 20-minute immersion in the Saint John river, caused the death Saturday afternoon, of Alphonsus E. Duffy, of South Bay. Mr. Duffy, who was alone at the time, had been cutting ice near his home opposite South Bay station and his cries for assistance were at first taken for friendly hails. He died soon after being taken out of the water.

INQUEST UNNECESSARY.
Dr. William Warwick, coroner, was called and decided an inquest was unnecessary.

It was shortly before 4 o'clock that the accident happened. Alphonsus Duffy with his brother Gregory, had been cutting ice in the pond at the city end of the South Bay bridge, a short distance from the main road, and only about 100 yards from their home. The work of cutting was finished for the day and Gregory went home while Alphonsus remained to help put the last load of ice on the team, when John McDonald, the driver, returned to get the ice to take it to the city dealers. It is thought that while he was waiting for the team he went to work shoveling the slush from the ice into the ice hole and that his foot slipped. This theory seems highly probable as the shovel is missing, and it is the only tool that Duffy used that was not in its usual place.

SMALL ICE HOLE.
There was only a comparatively small ice hole and the water at that place was about 8 or 10 feet deep. The unfortunate man's cries for help were first heard by Michael Kelly, James Hall and P. Clark, who were in teams driving along the road. As Duffy quite frequently called out to his friends, as they passed by, no special notice of his calling was taken at the moment, but as the teams rounded the hill, Duffy could be seen struggling in the water and the three men went at once to his aid. By the time they had reached the spot, he had disappeared under the ice. The helpers had no rope at the place and nothing with which to drag the drowning man to the surface. John Hall was with difficulty restrained from plunging in to his rescue, but his companions realized that no good could be accomplished in that way.

The rescuers ran to the Duffy home for a rope and also telephoned to neighbors for assistance. A pipe pole was secured and John McDonald and Gordon Arthur succeeded in dragging Mr. Duffy out of the ice hole.

STILL SIGNS OF LIFE.
There were still signs of life in the body and every possible means of resuscitation were tried. The helpers worked with the body for some time before giving up hope. Leo Collins had been called from Fairville and gave all assistance he could.

Dr. William Warwick, coroner, was informed of the accident on Saturday night and yesterday morning he went to the home and made an examination of the body and inquired into the circumstances. He considered an inquest was not necessary and gave permission for the burial of the body.

The funeral will take place on Tuesday afternoon from the family residence.

LIVED AT HOME.
Alphonsus Duffy had lived at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Duffy, of South Bay, and during the summer time worked about the farm. Besides his parents he is survived by one sister, Miss Agnes Duffy, a registered nurse, who is at present at home, and five brothers, William and Frederick, of Fairville; Harold, of New York, and Roy and Gregory at home.

URGE PROSECUTION OF LIQUOR PATRONS

U. S. Government Counsel Appeals Against Ruling of Lower Courts

WASHINGTON, March 15.—Customs are liable to prosecution with bootleggers, the Government argued in the Supreme Court here, if the latter fail to keep records of their sales available for Federal inspection.

The Government's contention was overruled in the lower courts, but attorneys who listened to questions from the bench got the impression that the Supreme Court might take a different view of the issue.

The question arose in Philadelphia when the government sought to prosecute Jacob Katz, George Senn and Herman Fuerstein for conspiracy on charges that Katz had sold liquor to the other men without keeping a record of the sales, including their names and addresses. The Federal District Court for Eastern Pennsylvania quashed the indictment, holding that the section of the Volstead act requiring the keeping of records for sales required only to permit holders.

ASKS $25,000 FROM SUICIDE'S ESTATE

Massachusetts Girl Brings Suit, Alleging Breach of Promise

BOSTON, Mass., March 15.—Probably the most unusual breach of promise suit to be filed in this State in years is that of Sophie Stanton of River Street, Hyde Park, which was entered in the Suffolk Superior Court against the estate of her fiancé John Jackman of Hyde Park.

For weeks, prior to the day set for their marriage, John went about inviting friends to be witnesses of his coming happiness. When all had arrived to take part in the expected festivities they learned that John committed suicide by taking gas a few hours before.

Now the young girl seeks to recover $25,000 from his estate, claiming that it is as much responsible to her as her sweetheart would have been had he lived and failed to carry out their mutual promises.

Another romance in the life of the young man has been hinted at as the reason for his rash act.

An attachment was allowed against whatever property could be located belonging to John. The latter was a mill hand but he believed to have saved nearly $25,000.

CHILDREN ENTERTAINED

The members of the Silver Cross circle of The King's Daughters provided a treat for the children of the Children's Aid Home on Saturday when they arranged a shamrock party for the children's pleasure. The members of the circle led the children in a series of games and a hearty song and regaled them with some fascinating stories. Then the Silver Cross circle members served a delicious supper. They decorated the table very prettily in green and white and had placed a sucker dressed as a doll by the plate of every child. The evident delight showed the members of the circle how thoroughly the party had been enjoyed.

The Canadian Pacific liner Montclare arrived in port yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from Liverpool, Glasgow and Belfast with 722 passengers, comprising 171 cabin and 551 third-class, in addition to 2,460 tons of general cargo and approximately 4,000 pieces of mail and parcel post. Her arrival came as a surprise to the C.P.R. and Government officials, as she was not due until Sunday at midnight.

As a result of encountering favorable weather she made up approximately ten hours. The majority of the passengers were destined to western Canada and they were sent forward in three special trains, the first leaving West Saint John at 5:45 o'clock, the second at 8:15 and the third at 9:15.

PROMINENT PASSENGERS.
Prominent among the passengers were: Mr. and Mrs. Melville Webb, of Winnipeg; Dr. A. E. Vipond and family, of Montreal; J. C. Brampton, of London; Major C. Davin, secretary of the Y. M. C. A. in London; Captain D. E. Standen, of Folkestone; Colonel F. Moss, of Toronto; Mrs. C. P. Creswell, of Montreal, wife of Superintendent Creswell of the C. P. R. Colonization and Development Department, and W. H. Brown, of Hamilton, manager of the Cosmo Imperial Mills.

Edna Blunt, aged 17, who was destined for Hamilton, Ont.; William Swales, aged 17, destined for Port Rowan, Ont.; William Webb, aged 15, destined for Thornhill, Man.; Ake Rorstrom, aged 17, destined for MacLean, Sask.; and a girl, aged 16, destined for Grandview, Man. On their arrival they were taken in charge by C. P. R. officials and arrangements made for their care until they reach their destinations.

STYLES IN ENGLAND

Mrs. Creswell had been in England, Scotland, France and Switzerland on a combined business and pleasure trip. She went to England and Europe primarily with an object of buying some of the latest styles in ladies' wear. She said the styles this year will be the straight line and pleats and are much more feminine looking than the former fashions.

Speaking about conditions in England she said she found them good, but this could not be said of France, where there was another drop in the franc. In Switzerland, however, business brisk and the people in general prosperous.

Included in the passengers was a party of 85 Danes, all skilled farmers, who are destined for the Prairie provinces of Saskatchewan and Alberta, where they have been assured of employment by the Danish Colonization Board.

SKILLED FARMERS

There was also a party of eight Norwegians on the steamer. These men are also skilled farmers and have positions waiting for them on farms in Manitoba.

There was also a party of British men on the steamer who were nominated to come to Canada on the British and Canadian government's scheme. They are proceeding to the Prairie provinces, where they are to take up farming.

YOUTHS FOR FARMS

Among the passengers were 17 Scotch and English youths who are to be placed on farms to acquire practical agriculture knowledge, following which they will take the winter course at Macdonald College, St. Anne de Bellevue. These boys were specially selected from families in a position to give them financial assistance if they decide to locate on Canadian farms. They were met by L. H. Hamilton, lecturer on animal husbandry in Macdonald College.

Another passenger was Cyril Bavin, general secretary of the migration department of the National Council of the Y. M. C. A., London, Eng. He is en route to Ottawa, where he will endeavor to stimulate immigration activities.

The ticket sellers, doormen, actors and more than a score of chorus girls and dancers were loaded into patrol wagons and taken to the station house. Those arrested were afterwards released on $500 bail each and the theatre reopened the same evening.

I coughed day and night, and had such severe pains, in my chest I could hardly bear them, but finally I sent and got a bottle of

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup

After I had taken a couple of doses I found that my cough was relieved and the pains were all gone, and by the time I had finished taking the whole bottle I was completely rid of my trouble.

Now, I will never be without a bottle of Dr. Wood's in my home.

INDICT POLICEMEN FOR TRAFFIC GRAFT

Two of Brooklyn Squad Accused of "Fixing" Cases Against Motorists

NEW YORK, March 15.—As a result of an investigation by City Magistrates at the Brooklyn Traffic Court of alleged traffic graft implicating motorists and policemen, the Kings County Grand Jury indicted yesterday Policemen William H. Traendly and Thomas F. Hendricks, on charges of forgery and accepting bribes. There were eight indictments, five against Traendly, three against Hendricks and one against both.

It was charged that the policemen had extorted or had accepted from motorists sums of $10 to $30 to "fix" complaints for traffic violations so that offenders would not have to appear before a magistrate. There were said to have been cases in which the policemen had served summonses themselves, at the court or had the cases disposed of in some manner not yet made public.
