To those who were carnestly thinking about Saint John's problems—how progress might emerge from the existing situation, for we must go forward of back, and the path shead is inviting—the period clapsing between the death of the late Mayor Potts and nomination day was far from encouraging. Doctor White, in the course of his admirable address at the Imperial theatre last night, made it known that antill eleven or twelve days before politing day he had no thought of re-centerating support in every province and provinces must share the profits—as generating the national extence that were unrent concerning the activities of fundamental provinces must share the profits—as generating the entries were not nearly so sumcroups in might well have been executed in view of the reports that were unrent concerning the activities of fundamental provinces must share the profits—as generating the entries were not nearly so sumcroups in might well have been executed in view of the reports that were unrent concerning the activities of fundamental provinces must share the profits—as generating the entries were not nearly so sumcroups in might well have been executed in view of the reports that were unrent concerning the activities of fundamental provinces must share the profits—as generating the entries were not nearly so sumcroups and the profits—as cledely and the profi

The Very Idea!

I CONSTANTLY envy, like all other young men, a youngster of eight or nine or ten. Down there in the age where all life is a grin, where youth has its fun, 'ere the worries come in. There's something concerning all kids that I know, that makes me feel bad when I know they must grow. I guess, after all, if you hit at the truth, we all feel that way when we're drifted from youth. ed from youth.

A grown-up can thrill o'er the pep of a boy who lives in a world that is made up of joy; who's reapin' the best that he possibly can, yet missin' a lot—as he'll find when a man.

You never appreciate bein' a child, an' suppin' through playdays a little an' runnin' through playdays a little bit wild, until you are grown—then it's always too late to live it all over-I wish I could tell every lad in the land, the meaning of youth so he'd well understand, and get all the fun and the pleasure, but gee, they'll never find out till they're grown up, like me. Washings may not be all wool-but they're usually a yard wide. Agreeing that we all sprang from
