Blister Prevents Gibbons Sparring

Sore Lip Compels Challenger to Limit Training Work to Other Exercises.

Shelby, Mont., June 23.—An incident blister on Tommy Gibbons' lip caused Manager Kane to call off the boxing programme in the challenger's camp for a day. Instead of the customary boxing, Gibbons tugged and wrestled with Jimmy Delaney and his other partners for two rounds, doubled the time of his calisthenics and then called it an afternoon. In the morning he covered ten miles on the still muddy roads, and finished with rope skipping and work on the stationary and swinging punching bags.

Gibbons doesn't need much work just now, however. As a matter of fact, Kane is much more afraid that Gibbons will go stale before his big chance comes on July 4 than he is that Tommy will not train down fine enough, and the wily manager welcomes every chance to keep his charge from doing too much work.

George Manley, light heavyweight from Denver, has joined the camp and was ready to go on with Gibbons, had the latter done any boxing. Manley is a tall, rangy fellow and looks as if he might make Gibbons an excellent sparring partner.

Must Observe Taps.
Kane put a ten o'clock bedtime rule into effect at the camp. During the last week some of Gibbons' assistants have been doing most of their road work on the floors of the local dance halls, and in the morning there was no one up in time to go on the road with Gibbons.
Several of the men have bouts of their feet here on July 3 and 4, and Kane will insist both for their own good and for Gibbons', that they must remain in strict training from now until the big battle is over.

Even in his abbreviated workout in the afternoon Gibbons showed the same speed of hand and foot that has featured his exhibitions ever since he began training. As has been said before, Dempsey is likely to find difficulty in hitting Gibbons. The challenger is working with boxers who are as fast as the champion, and in nine days of boxing not one of them has been able to reach him with a solid blow. They have hit him, but they have never hit him hard. Dempsey is not a slow hitter, but neither of his hands travels as fast as that flicking left of Jimmy Delaney's, and the St. Paul heavyweight admits that he hasn't been able to land a telling blow on Gibbons yet.
