FIVE-DAY WEEK FOR WORK--THEN TWO DAYS FOR REST AND PLAY
THAT'S GOOD BUSINESS AND A FAIR DEAL, DECLARES MERCHANT PRINCE WHO WILL TRY IT

John Wanamaker, Who Started Country With Plan to Give His Employees the Whole of Saturday Off, Tells Correspondent About Movement Which May Include All Working People and Extend Over Whole Year.

PROPOSES 5-DAY WEEK ALL THE YEAR.
We shall have the coming day when the people will get nothing but rest, and in the meantime we will close the store on Saturday the year around and help make a Sunday of two days.

Everybody knows John Wanamaker, the merchant prince of Philadelphia. He was once postmaster general of the United States and is noted for the "bigness" of the things he does. At seventy-six he has anticipated progress a bit and has put into practice a dream of years—a five-day week for store employees.

Toronto, June 2.—Arrangements are being completed for impressive funeral and memorial services for the Salvation Army victims of the Empress disaster. The bodies will lie in state in the Arena on Saturday from nine to one, while a funeral service will be held there on Sunday and St. John's Guild will provide the music. A memorial service will be held on Sunday in Massey Hall at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Many requests are being received from delegations asking that provision be made at one or other service, Fredrickton Man.

FOREST FIRE AGAIN TODAY.
Indications in the city today are that forest fires are again raging not far distant. A long distance message from Westford about three o'clock said that a fierce fire was raging about half a mile back of Smith's lake, about two miles back of the village. The fire gained great headway about nine o'clock this morning and had been coming ever since.

TO CONSIDER MATTER OF CARGOES ON THE DECK.
T. W. Moore, secretary of the Imperial Merchant Service Guild, as a member of the International Law Association, has received a communication from Hon. Francis B. James, to the effect that the committee on commercial law of the American Bar Association, of which committee he is chairman, has arranged for a public meeting of the committee in Washington, on June 3 to consider the subject of deck cargoes as carried by merchant ships.

HELEN R. SOLD.
Captain J. C. Peters, of Sydney, has sold his racing mare, Helen R., to Captain D. H. McKinnon, of Charlottetown, P. E. I., for the large sum of $1,000. Captain Peters, who bought her when she was four years old, trained her himself. She made her mark in the exhibition races last year when she trotted the mile in 2:19.14. Under the new rules she is eligible for the 2:45 class. On the ice last winter she faced the steepest six times and was never braken once. She won and scored victories over the best horses in Cape Breton, such as Oak Hall, Otto Oakes, Prince Wilke, and Haggler, 2:08.12, Leland F. 2:11, Meadow Vale, Billy, Nick R., Wronoka Girl, and Nellie.
