FAMOUS GEMS OF PROSE

INJUSTICE THE CAUSE OF NATIONAL RUIN

By Theodore Parker

Do you know how empires find their end? Yes, the great states eat up the little; as with fish, so with nations. Aye, but how do great states come to an end? By their own injustice, and no other cause. Come with me, my friends, come with me into the inferno of the nations, with such poor guidance as my lamp can lend. Let us descend and bring to the awful shadows of empire long ago, and learn a lesson from the Tomb.

Come, old Assyria, with the Ninevehish devils upon thy emerald ground. What said the law?

It fell by my own injustice. Thereby Nineveh and Babylon came with me to the ground.

O queenly Persia, flame of the nations, wherefore art thou so fallen, who trodest the people under thee, the brigades the Hellepont with ships and poured thy temple-wasting millions on the western world?

"Because I trod the people under me, and bridged the Hellepont with ships, and poured my temple-wasting millions on the western world. I fell by my own misdeeds!"

O, manly, majestic Rome, thy sevenfold mural crown all broken at thy feet, why art thou here? 'Twas not injustice brought thee low; for thy Great Book of Law is prefaced with these words, Justice is the unchanging, everlasting will, to give each man his right.

'Twas not the saint's ideal, it was the hypocrite's pretence I made inquiry my law. I trod the nations under me. Their wealth glided my palaces—where thou mayest see the fox and hear the raven's cry. I trod the nations under me. Millions of bondmen wet the soil with tears and blood. Do not bear it crying to God? Lo, here have I recompensed, tormented with suffering as you see, the loveliness of flesh embalmed in Parian stone. I loved the loveliness of thought and treasured that in more than Parian stone, and brought the Hellepont with ships, and poured my temple-wasting millions on the western world. I fell by my own misdeeds!"

THE NEW QUEEN OF THE DAIRY

Over Seven Tons of Milk and Over Half a Ton of Butter in One Year.

Another world's record has been broken. The new queen of the dairy is a beautiful Jersey cow named Sophie, bred at Hood Farm, owned and tended at Hood Farm, Lowell (Mass.) She is the champion Jersey for milk and butter fast production of cows between four and five years of age. During the twelve months ending Dec. 31, 1910, on a test authenticated by the Massachusetts Agricultural College, under the rules of the American Jersey Cattle Club, Sophie produced 73,000 lbs. of milk, 373 pounds 3 ounces milk, testing 1,005 pounds 11 ounces butter or over half a ton. An accurate account was kept of her feed, and her milk sold at 10c per quart made a profit of $665.22.

The United States Department of Agriculture's estimate in round numbers of the wealth produced each year by the 22,000,000 cows in the United States is $800,000,000, or an average profit of $36.36 per cow. If more attention was paid to feeding and breeding it should be easy to increase the average profit per cow to at least one-tenth of the profit made by Sophie, which would mean an increase of $40,000,000.

POLITICS AND GENERAL TOPICS IN ENGLAND

The Times London Letter—Old Misunderstanding Past, Home Rule Now Imperial Question—Mr. Balfour's Loss by Death—A Welcome to Our Troops at Coronation

(Times' Special Correspondence)

London, Feb. 20.—The tariff reformers who have made another fatal blunder this week, amid the wreckage of their hopes, are doing so, it is said, because they are thrown to them in the indiscreet speech of the prospective speaker of the House of Commons, Mr. Balfour, in his warning that this reciprocity arrangement would be a political union which makes Canada part of the United States.

Happy the free trade organs have been that they have not been repeating this warning, and that they have not been calling upon to make the same choice as now, England took the side of Lord Elgin in holding that Canada's reciprocal trade with the United States is indispensable to check any talk of annexation.

It is understood here that Champ Clark's speech is a blinding indiscretion that is not to be taken seriously. The free traders do not want the attachment of Canada to this country to be strained by any taxes which would raise the tariff on the goods of the desirable trade which is natural between Canada and her neighbors across the boundary.

Each free trader rejoices to hear from the Washington correspondent of The Times that reciprocity would act as a pre-ventive to aspirations after political union or annexation. It is a herculean task and to join with them in denouncing what is in Canada held to be a blinding indiscretion that is not to be taken seriously.

The Home Rule Debate

Today the tug of war between the Unionists and the Liberal and Irish parties is causing only a mild sensation, for the Unionist amendment to the address is a protest against home rule, which meets with overwhelming defeat. The debate is but the prelude to the swelling act of the imperial theme. The debate is only interesting because of the great speeches of the prime minister and Mr. Birrell who have committed the vast majority of the house to the Irish cause. The Irish members, in sight of victory, are less vehement than in any debate on the well worn subject of the Irish question. The debate is now a general question.

The National Theatre

The energetic committee which has charge of the scheme for the building of a national Shakespeare memorial theatre is at last apparently within sight of realizing the dream of lovers of the English drama and of the memory of the world's greatest dramatist. A site, the most suitable in London, has been chosen and the London county council is now being asked to grant an option of the corner of Spring Gardens which will be available when the offices of the L. C. C. are removed to the south side over Westminster Bridge.

"Spring Gardens" will likely be the shrine of all the world's Shakespeare worshippers and the erection of such a noble pile as is proposed, will cement the English people to take the theatre more seriously and to raise our stage to the level of the fine art. It is appropriate that the national temple of the drama should be in Trafalgar Square, facing the National Gallery, which is the chief of our picture galleries. It is proposed to spend £200,000 on the building of the national theatre and it is generally believed that the L. C. C. when the old offices are vacated, will grant the letting of this noble site for such a noble purpose.

The Devonshire Statue

This week has seen the addition of another colossal statue to the imposing grandeur of Whitehall. Close to the Horse Guards now stands the giant figure of the late Duke of Devonshire, just unveiled by the Marquis of Lansdowne, who in great regard for the great Unionist statesman, paid their tribute of respect to the man who in his lifetime was held in great regard by the middle classes. In his earlier day as the Marquis of Hartington, he was one of Gladstone's stalwart supporters who parted from his leader, because he would not agree with Home Rule for Ireland.

That Tired Feeling

that is caused by impure, impoverished blood or low, run-down condition of the system, is burdensome and discouraging. Do not put up with a day longer, or take Ireland's broad smiles of Walter Long, or the golden opportunity of doing justice to the Unionist party, for his manly, honest, and unassuming sense appealed to the people. He was a great aristocrat with strong Liberal leanings, who never played to the gallery and cared nothing for popularity or fame. He will be remembered as a great paragon of a statesman, and a great patriot of a great House of Commons speech. He was the last of the English Whigs and the last of a political union which makes Canada part of the United States.

He became one of the most powerful of the architect and Joseph Chamberlain and Lord James was perhaps the most independent and blunt leader of the Unionist party, for his manly, honest, and unassuming sense appealed to the people. He was a great aristocrat with strong Liberal leanings, who never played to the gallery and cared nothing for popularity or fame. He will be remembered as a great paragon of a statesman, and a great patriot of a great House of Commons speech. He was the last of the English Whigs and the last of a political union which makes Canada part of the United States.

FAIRVILLE INDUSTRY

A Visit to the Well Equipped Wilson Box Factory

On Saturday afternoon a large number of citizens interested in the new Wilson box factory, Fairville, visited the plant on the invitation of the president and directors of the company. The visitors were shown over the premises and showed great interest in all they saw. Lumber in the shape of rough sawn boards was seen going in at one end of the mill and boxes coming out at the other end, some of which were hand-stamped in two colors by the Hooper press.

In addition to its box mill at Fairville, the company has a saw mill at Westfield which will be kept busy sawing logs into box boards, dried and shunted by car from there to Fairville, a complete system of sidings having been installed at both points. The plant of the company covers eight acres, and is said to be the most complete of its kind east of Montreal. The power house is of concrete covered by a reinforced concrete roof. There are two 125 horse power boilers with a Corlies engine capable of developing 500 horse power. The fuel for the boilers will be the shavings and sawdust from the different machines. The authorized capital is $50,000. The total number of employees will be over fifty. The company has already large orders on hand, and backed by capable management which it undoubtedly has, together with the ever increasing demand that exists for boxes, cases and crates of all kinds, the success of the enterprise seems assured.

The officers are: President, T. H. Estabrook; vice-president, Stanley E. Elkin; managing director, Alex. Wilson; director, W. J. Fenton; superintendent, John Galey. This is one more instance of the great awakening that is taking place industrially in St. John at the present time and which bids fair to be continued as the advantages of this city as a manufacturing centre become better known.

Had Severe Pains In His Back. Could Hardly Work.

Mr. Alfred B. Davis, Gorrie, Ont., writes:—"For some years I suffered from severe pains in my back and could hardly work at all, and when I stooped down to pick up anything felt as if my back must break. I was advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills, and after taking two boxes I was entirely cured, and feel that I cannot speak too highly in your favor."

Those who have never been troubled with kidney trouble do not know the suffering and misery which those afflicted with it must undergo.

Weak, lame or aching back comes from the kidneys, and when the kidneys are out of order the whole system becomes deranged.

Doan's Kidney Pills are a specific for all kidney troubles. They help the kidneys to flush off the acid and poisonous impurities which have collected, thus clearing out the kidneys, bladder and urinary passages.

Price 50c per box or 3 for $1.25, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price in cash to The J. C. Watson Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

If ordered direct specify "Doan's" still remain cured."

SUFFERED THREE YEARS

Will Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills cured his Kidney Trouble

There are few diseases that cause more acute suffering than Kidney Trouble, and Mr. F. A. Thomas of Sudbury, Ont., is one of those who know it. He writes: "For over three years I suffered from kidney disease. First I thought I had sprained my back, for suddenly the pain would catch the small of my back and it would be impossible for me to straighten myself up for several minutes. The pain ached across the kidneys, but was most recent, my urine was thick, and I was passing it caused, but no relief. I tried medicine, but was failed. I was advised to try Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills, as they had cured my wife years before. A few boxes effected a complete cure. I now enjoy the blessing of good health, which is due to this remedy."

A VALUABLE SUGGESTION

Information of Importance to Everyone

A great deal of pain and suffering might be avoided if we had some knowledge of physiology and the care of the body, particularly those parts that do the most work and should always be kept strong and healthy.

In an interview with a prominent physician he states that people should pay more attention to their kidneys as they control the other organs to a remarkable degree and do a tremendous amount of work in removing the poisons and waste matter from the system by filtering the blood.

During the winter months especially when we live in indoor life the kidneys should receive the assistance when needed, as we take less exercise, drink less water and often eat more rich heavy food, thereby making the kidneys do more work than Nature intended. Evidence of kidney trouble, such as lame back, inability to hold one's urine, or burning, brick-dust or sediment, weak complexion, rheumatism, hay fever, or irregularity of heart action, may be signs that your kidneys require help immediately to avoid serious trouble.

An herb medicine containing no mineral or opiate has the most healing influence. An ideal herb compound that has had remarkable success as a kidney remedy is Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root.

You may receive a sample bottle of Swamp-Root by mail, absolutely free. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., and mention the St. John Evening Times.

T. H. ESTABROOKS GUEST OF HIS STAFF AT DINNER

It is not often that the traveling staff of a commercial house is able on its own initiative to break a record. This has recently been done in at least one house in this city. The nine men who cover the maritime provinces in the interests of T. H. Estabrooks resolved to make the last month a record one in the sales of Red Rose tea and coffee. They accomplished their object, in spite of the fact that larger sales than usual had been made in January, and sold more goods than in any previous February.

In celebration of the event and to present the result to Mr. Estabrooks, they invited him to a dinner in White's restaurant Saturday evening, at which were also present all the office and warehouse staffs. The evening was a very enjoyable one, and two speeches were made. One of these was by Louis Armstrong, the senior traveler, who in explaining the reason for the success, said he was glad that this had been achieved by the staff of the firm.

Mr. Estabrooks, in reply, spoke of the surprise and pleasure which he had in listening to the return made. The occasion, he believed, was unique in the history of the firm, and he hoped that the same success would be achieved in the same manner.

THE DOCTOR'S QUESTION

Much Sickness Due to Bowel Disorders

A doctor's first question when consulted by a patient is, "Are your bowels regular?" He knows that 80 per cent of illness is attended with inactive bowels, and that a healthy and active bowels must be removed gently and thoroughly before health can be restored.

Recall (order) is a positive, pleasant and safe remedy for constipation and bowel disorders. I am so certain of its power to turn a sick man's money in every case when he tries to produce health that I will guarantee to produce health.

POLICY OF THE NEW FRENCH CABINET

Paris, March 5.—The new cabinet met tonight and drew up the declaration which will be delivered in the chamber of deputies tomorrow. This declaration says that in the interests of social peace the railroad employees of the state who were dismissed at the time of the recent strike will be taken back into service with the exception of those who were guilty of gross insubordination and destruction of property. The railroads not under state supervision will be requested to act similarly with regard to their employees.

The declaration outlines the government's policy in respect to the law, the liquidation of the schools, social reform and foreign affairs. It affirms the government's determination to pursue a policy of pacification, based on the one hand on a system of ententes and alliance, and on the other, on a strong army.

What is thought to be the smallest-sized check ever presented to a bank was cashed at San Rafael, Calif., Wednesday, when Joseph Taylor received twenty cents at the Marion county bank on presentation of a canceled two-cent stamp on which the order to pay had been written.
