

SCOUTS AND GUIDES GATHER AT SERVICE

Presentation of Badges at St. Paul's Follows—Scout Events of Next Few Days.

The St. Paul's Troop of Boy Scouts and Company of Girl Guides and the Scouts of Mission Church attended the special service in St. Paul's church last night, which is held annually for Scouts and Guides. The service was conducted by Ven. Archdeacon A. H. Crowfoot. They paraded to the service and afterwards marched to the Sunday school where the presentation of badges for St. Paul's Guides took place. Mrs. Crowfoot made the presentations. Games were played afterwards. The leaders present included Miss Alice Eason, of St. Paul's Guides; Miss Irene Barber, of Mission Church Guides; F. Choppin, assistant district commissioner for Boy Scouts; Clarence G. Hoyt, Scoutmaster of the Mission Church Troop; L. L. Johnson, district secretary; William Anderson of Mission Pack; D. W. Colwell, St. George's Troop; and W. L. Pincorne, Victoria Street Baptist Troop.

Coming Events.
There are some important events in the Scout programme for the next few days. The district troop meeting will be held on Saturday night at the Armory and a fine programme has been prepared for the meeting. On Monday night there will be a meeting for all Scout and Cub leaders in the Scout Office to discuss arrangements for the annual church parade and following the leaders' meetings the Rover's troop will assemble. This troop has been inactive for a short while during the first aid practices. A practical night for Cub leaders will be another special event of the near future.

FIVE HOME RUNS

Yankees Crash Ball Over Centrefield Fence and Defeat Dodgers.
NEW YORK, April 8.—Aaron Ward, second baseman of the Yankees, took his turn in masquerading as Babe Ruth yesterday, and sent two balls hurtling over the centrefield fence at Green-Yard, S. C. The Yankees captured an easy victory over the Dodgers, 16 to 8, and took the lead in the pre-season series by two games. Five home runs came out of the first three innings, two for Ward, one for Earl Coombs, one for Deberry and another for Milton Stock.

N. S. Committee Approves 75 Per Cent. of Outlay

HALIFAX, April 8.—A resolution authorizing the immediate use of 75 per cent. of the total amount of the estimated expenditure for 1925, was passed in committee of supply in the Legislative Assembly this afternoon, the motion resulting in a recurrence of the debate in the Legislature on $200,000 authorized for relief work and passed on a division of the House 20 to 8.

With its enameled Armco Iron flues and sturdy construction is BUILT FOR A LIFETIME OF SERVICE

for ROOFS

These tests prove roofing quality

AN icy rain—a driving sleet storm that freezes overnight—then a cheerful sun which turns the ice into steam—cause rapid changes of temperature which only the finest roofing material can stand unharmed. Vulcanite Roofing comes unscathed through a test ten times harder than this—the ice test shown above! This sturdy roofing will withstand the severest weather conditions during the life of the building.

Send the coupon now for a sample of this quality roofing and descriptive literature. Note its patented features which give greater protection—its beauty, its distinctive design. Sur-faced in Sage Green, Blue-Black or Indian Red crushed slate.

SIX DARING TESTS
1. HEAT TEST: Lay sample of Vulcanite on hot radiator for 12 hours. See if it softens or if it will melt or dry out.
2. ICE TEST: Lay sample on roof for 12 hours. See if it softens or if it will melt or dry out.
3. WATER TEST: Soak sample in water for 12 hours. See if it absorbs any water.
4. FIRE TEST: Lay white-hot coal of fire on sample. See if it sets the roofing on fire.
5. ACID TEST: Immerse sample in hydrochloric acid. See if it is affected in any way.
6. "SCUFF" TEST: Lay sample on floor. Walk on it hard with your shoe. See if any of the surface material will come off.
