For the Government of the Council

1. There shall be two regular meetings of the Council, one as soon after the business meeting as possible—notice of which shall be given by the President or the presiding officer—and the other in November following, at such time and place as the Chairman of Council shall name.
2. Special meetings may also be called by the Chairman of Council at any time, and it shall be his duty to do so on the written requisition of any three members of Council, and the nature of the business for which such meeting is called must be set forth in the notice to be given each member.
3. Notice of time and place of all special meetings and of the regular meeting in November, shall be issued by the Secretary to each member of the Council at least three days before the day appointed for the meeting.
4. Every member of Council shall be deemed to be duly notified by having a written notice of the meeting left at his residence or place of business, or by having a copy thereof mailed to him within the prescribed time.
5. Meetings of Council may adjourn from day to day.
6. The Council shall appoint three of its members an Executive Committee, whose duty it shall be to carry into effect the views of the Council as expressed at any of its meetings; to assist the Secretary in arranging the Prize Lists and the Annual Report, and they shall settle all disputes during the annual prize meetings.
