MORE JUNE SPECIALS TO REDUCE STOCKS!

It is only natural that advertising statements regarding the sacrifice of merchandise should invite more or less incredulity on the part of the public. That merchants are not in business for their health is obvious, consequently it's no doubt rather hard to believe that they would deliberately select good, staple stuff for sacrifice while they are still in style and season. Yet if they could only come behind the scenes for a few moments they would realize the necessity for such sacrifices at stated periods. One of these times is now at hand. Read on—

WHOLLY UNREPENTANT;
HOME RULE, HE SAYS

LONDON, June 7.—"The foremost liberal principle of the government, in the administration of Irish affairs, is that they should be conducted in accordance with Irish ideas," said the Marquis of Elyon, lord privy seal and Liberal leader in the House of Lords, speaking tonight before the Eighty Club at the Hotel Cecil. He referred to the withdrawal of Mr. Balfour's Irish council bill and declared it was quite natural that the Nationalists should have rejected the measure when they honestly believed it would have been an obstacle to their ultimate goal—home rule. The speaker was greatly applauded when he announced that he was a "wholly unrepentant home ruler."

Tomorrow night at the Nickel Roller rink a one mile handicap race will take place for which twenty entries have been received.

CUSTOM TAILORING; READY TO WEAR CLOTHING.

HANDREN-MADEE. The exact significance or origin of the cross bun is not too certain. A superstition regarding baked bread on Good Friday appears to have existed from an early period. Bread so baked was kept by a family all through the ensuing year under the belief that a few grains of it in water would prove a specific for any ailment—Leeds and Yorkshire Mercury.

Are we to mark this day with a white or a black stone?—Cervantes.
