

Special Features.

1. A large building beautifully situated, warmed with hot water radiators, always comfortable.
2. Good health.
3. Any student can take any work in the University for which he is ready.
4. Good moral and social influences.
5. Good quality and variety in the Dining Hall.

These, with thorough education, give Mount Allison Academy Students great advantages.

Requirements.

The general principle insisted on is obedience to proper authority. No one will be allowed to continue in the Academy whose habits are damaging to good morals, or who persistently disregards its rules. In cases in which it appears necessary to take steps towards severing the connection of a Student with the Institution, preliminary notice will be given to the parents or guardians, if the gravity of the offence does not require instant action.

Punctuality and regularity in attendance upon school duties, industrious application to study, chasteness of speech, proper observance of the Sabbath, a careful refraining from injury to the buildings and property of the Institution, and a strict abstinence from tobacco and from intoxicating drinks and places where they are sold, are especially insisted on.

Students are required to attend service each Sunday at the Church to which they belong.

Remarks.

All who design to become students of the Institution should enter, if at all possible, at the commencement of the Term, as the regular classes are then organized; pupils, however, will be received any time. The only prerequisites for admission into the Primary Department are a good moral character, ability to read and spell, and age sufficient to enable a pupil to prepare regularly for recitation.
