FREDERICTOR.

Mr. and Mrs. Winslow, with their daughter the fair debutantee received their guests in the parlor at the back of the lower hall, the two large parlors to the froat being reserved for dancing.

Offen's orehestre, stationed in the eastern parlor rendered fine dance music, and with the highly waxed hard wood floors made dancing a thorough injoyment. I case and light refreshments were served all evening and at midnight the supper room was opened where a sumptous repast was enjoyed. The invited guests were.

monotony since the New Year till last Friday when a large skating party was given by Mrs. Harvey Copp and Mrs. Hiram Copp. A large number of invitations were issued and fully two hundred guests were present; many preferring to look on rather than Join the throng: who gaily spun round and round to the alluring strains of the band. A toothsome supper was sayed early is , the evening so that the guests c.me sind went at will, and thus prevented the supper room from being over crowded. A striking improvement was the ledge that has been placed all around the wall at a convenient height to receive one's cup and plate so there was no dauger of a spill, and with plenty of chairs every one was able to get his supper in great comfort. Severe colds are easily cured by the use of Bichl.'s Anti-Consumptive Styrup a medicine of extraordinary penetrating and healing properties. It is acknow-edged by those who have used it as being the best medicine sold for course, colds, inflammation of the lungs, and all affactions of the throat and chest. Its agreeableness to the taste makes it a laworite with ladies and children.
