

THE WEATHER.

MARITIME—Northwesterly winds, cool and mostly fair, with some local showers. Toronto, Ont., June 20.—The weather today has been showery in the Maritime Provinces and Manitoba and fine in other parts of the Dominion. The temperature continues high in Manitoba but further west and also from Ontario eastward it has been somewhat lower than yesterday.

AROUND THE CITY

Keys Found by Police. A bunch of keys found by the police on Waterloo street awaits the owner at central station.

Must Pay Taxes. Frederick Gray and John Grover have been reported by the police as working in the city without a license.

The Military Veterans. The New Brunswick Military Veterans will meet at their room in the Market Building on Thursday at 9.30 a. m. to take part in the Coronation Day parade.

The Machinists Union. Louis Boulton, of Montreal, third vice-president of the Brotherhood of Machinists, addressed a meeting of the local machinists in the Opera House last evening. About 60 men were present. The local union is rapidly increasing its membership.

Suit for $2,000. The Saint John Railway Company is suing J. G. Speredakea for $2,000 for the theft of electricity. Mr. Speredakea is at present in the county jail serving his sentence for this offence. F. R. Taylor is acting for the company.

Rev. Mr. Graham Leaves Monday. Rev. A. A. Graham, who has resigned the rectory of St. David's church to accept the principalship of a college in Saskatchewan, will leave by the Montreal express on Monday evening. Rev. Mr. Graham will occupy the pulpit in St. David's at both services on Sunday next.

Meeting of the W. C. T. U. The W. C. T. U. met yesterday afternoon. Mrs. C. F. Woodburn read an interesting paper on the subject of Narcotics. Mrs. Howard Sprague, of Sackville, read a paper dealing with alcohol and its use for medicinal and culinary purposes. She deprecated the use of alcoholic spirits in both cases.

Citizen Soldiers Arrive. Hundreds of soldiers from Andover, Frederick and other sections of the province passed through the city yesterday en route to Camp Sussex. A Section of the Army Medical Corps of this city with members of the signal corps left for the camp yesterday morning.

Violating Early Closing Law. Daniel Monahan, 22 Charlotte street was reported by Policeman Sullivan for keeping his store open and selling goods on the 19th inst. during prohibitory hours contrary to the law. Frank Whelpley is mentioned as a witness. Policeman McFarlane has reported Maurice Jacobson for keeping his place of business at 617 Main street open and exposing goods for sale and selling on the 19th during prohibitory hours.

Burt-Wilson. Rev. Dr. Hutchinson officiated at a pretty wedding at 41 Douglas Avenue last evening at 8.30 o'clock when he united in marriage George Johnston Burt of Centerville and Miss Pearl A. Wilson of Lakeville, Carleton county. The couple, who are both popular, were unattended. The groom is a veterinary surgeon practicing in Truro. They will leave today for Truro, where they will reside.

No Exams, Thursday. As representations have been made to the New Brunswick education office from several places in the province, that the high school entrance examinations for Grade VIII pupils upon the programme for Thursday, June 22 would interfere with the Coronation Day exercises arranged, it is ordered by Chief Superintendent Carter that no examination be held upon that day, but that Thursday's subjects be given upon the Friday following, and that Friday's subjects be given upon the Saturday following. If reading be given previously it will be necessary to give Latin upon Saturday. As the award of the lieutenant governor's medals depends upon these examinations, this order must be carried out at all stations. Saturday will not be reported as a teaching day.

Tablet for Canton's Island. A delegation of members of the New Brunswick Historical Society enjoyed a pleasant outing yesterday when they were the guests of Commodore Thomson on his steam yacht. The party consisting of Judge Armstrong, Rev. Dr. Raymond, D. R. Jack, Dr. G. U. Hay, C. Ward and Jonas Howe sailed up the river and landed on Canton's Island, near Brown's Flats. The island, which is also called the Isle of Pines was the scene of the first white settlement, and three hundred years ago a number of fisher-folk and traders from the town of St. Malo, in France, settled there. The N. B. Historical Society purposed marking the tricentenary of the establishment of the settlement, and giving the island prominence as a historic point of the province. The intention of the society is to place a memorial on the island, and to probably have an appropriate inscription placed on one of the boulders on the island. The society will hold an outing in August to mark the tricentenary, at which the unveiling of the memorial will take place.

WILL HOLD AN INQUEST INTO WM. PARKS' DEATH

Definitely Known Now that Mill Street Jeweler Committed Suicide by Taking Poison while Despondent.

Coroner Roberts has decided not to hold an inquest into the death of Wm. J. Parks, the jeweller, who was found dead in his Mill street store on Monday afternoon. There is no doubt now that the man committed suicide by drinking a solution of cyanide of potassium, a poison which he had been using in his work. A cup containing a quantity of the solution was found near the body and was analyzed by M. V. Paddock. On a show case in the store near where the body was found was a note written by Mr. Parks requesting the inquest to be held on Monday afternoon. The late Mr. Parks had been greatly troubled of late through financial difficulties and from other reasons and it is stated that recently he received a message stating that his application for membership in a local secret society had been rejected. This message was in error as his application had been accepted.

All these matters worried the jeweler and he became despondent and had recently made the remark that he would kill himself. The deceased's only near relative in his wife, who resides in Liverpool, advised Coroner Roberts sent her a cablegram Monday notifying her of her husband's death. Yesterday she sent a cable to Ernest J. Heatt of the Hygienic bakery who is a friend of the deceased, stating that she would immediately leave for St. John and requesting Mr. Heatt to look after affairs until she arrived. The deceased will be buried today from George Chamberlain's undertaking rooms, Mill street.

GLANSMEN HELD A PLEASANT SOCIAL

Clan Mackenzie's Occupancy of New Hall Signalized by an Enjoyable Function Last Evening.

Clan Mackenzie met for the first time last night in their new quarters, Oddfellows' Hall, Charlotte street, and the affair took the shape of a house warming and Scotch night, the celebration being in honor of the move to the new hall. There was a large gathering and the evening's entertainment opened when the pipes sounded, and led into the room a procession of the Ladies' Auxiliary of Clan Mackenzie and the officers of the clan.

Dr. George G. Corbet, the chief of the clan, presided, and gave an address of welcome. Royal Deputy C. K. Cameron followed with a song and Clansman John McLeod was seen to advantage in a sword dance. Songs were rendered by Mrs. John McKay, Past Chief H. L. McGowan, Geo. F. Menzies, Joseph A. Murdoch, and Thomas Malcolm; a vocal duet by Mrs. and Miss McKay, vocal duet by Mrs. Dean and Mrs. McKay. Addresses were given by Dr. James Christie, recitation Clansman George Shaw, Highland Fling Clansman E. McDonald, reading Mrs. Robert Jamieson, and an address by Postmaster Edward Sears. Refreshments were served, and the pleasant evening finished up with a dance. The house warming was a most enjoyable one.

THE SEWALL TABLET.

To the Editor of The Standard. Sir,—Regarding your notice of the tablet to Jonathan Sewall, in Trinity church, kindly allow space to say that the tablet erected by several of the descendants of his sons Jonathan and Stephen. It might also be pointed out that he held the office of Judge of the Vice Admiralty Court of Nova Scotia, which then included New Brunswick, prior to his leaving Boston in 1775. He was threatened by the mob even at his house in Cambridge. A price was set upon his head and his property was confiscated. On receiving his pension in 1787 he returned from England and lived quietly in St. John for the remainder of his life.

He was a great friend of Ward Chipman as well as of Judge Putnam. Some of his letters have been published. He appears to have been a man of talent and of a kindly disposition. Let me add that in the same tomb with Putnam and Sewall are deposited the remains of the first rector of Trinity church. It would seem fitting to have this recorded on the cover of the vault.

St. John, 20th June, 1911. R. C. D.

THE CORONATION PLANS ARE PERFECTED

Coronation Day Committee, Last Evening, Drew up Procession Routes and Made Plans for the Celebration.

At a meeting of the Coronation Day Committee held last evening, arrangements for the ceremonies incident to the day were practically completed. After the services in the churches which will convene at 9 a. m., and continue to 9.45 a military demonstration will take place on King street East. The 62nd Regiment, the Artillery, and the Cadets will assemble at 10 o'clock, and a royal salute by the artillery and a fusillade by the infantry will be fired over Courtenay Bay. The following organizations will take part in the society parade in the afternoon: Sons of England, Prentice Boys, Black Knights, Orange Order, Polymorphians and Boy Scouts. St. George's, St. Andrew's, and other societies, will meet at the Court House in the morning, and parade to church. After Ald. Jones had called last night's meeting to order, Ald. Elliot said citizens of the North End were desirous that the parade route should be extended to the North End. He moved that arrangements be made to have the afternoon parade go to the North End. Ald. Wigmore said it was the intention to have the afternoon parade go to the North End. The evening parade would be confined to the principal streets in the centre of the city.

Col. Sturdee suggested that a sub-committee be appointed to draw up a route for the afternoon parade. The Chairman appointed Messrs. Sturdee, Green, Stockford, Rolston, and Clifford for this purpose.

Mr. Morrissey suggested that arrangements be made to engage the St. John Pipe Band to lead the cadets in the military parade during the morning. After some discussion it was decided to leave the matter with the executive to make the best arrangements possible.

Somebody wanted to know why the Caledonia Pipe Band should be left out. Ald. McLeod moved that an engagement be given the Caledonia band. Ald. Elliot seconded this.

Ald. Wigmore said the committee had arranged for expenditure of about $1,500, though their civic grant only amounted to $500. Ald. McLeod's motion was adopted. Wm. Brooks said the Polymorphians club had arranged for 15 special features, and had gone to considerable expense. They wanted a grant of $500.

The chairman—"That is out of the question."

The Mayor said it was understood that a grant of $300 would be given the club. Mr. Brooks said the Polymorphians wanted two bands. Col. Sturdee then submitted the report of the route committee. It recommended that the societies assemble at 2 in the afternoon on King street, east, and make a start at 2.30. The route as recommended was as follows:—King street, east, Wentworth, Orange, Sydney, Duke, Charlotte, down King Dock, Mill, Main, Adelaide, Victoria, Albert, Main, Paradise Road, City Road, Brussels, Union and Sydney to the Court House. The report was adopted.

The firemen's procession will start at 9 o'clock. They will form up in King street, east and proceed by way of Wentworth, Princess, Charlotte King, German, Wellington Row, Carleton, Coburg, Paddock, Waterloo, Union, Charlotte streets to the South Side of King Square, and thence by way of Sydney to King street, east. After the firemen's procession a fireworks display will be made from the South Side of King Square.

Ald. McLeod was appointed chief marshal of the afternoon procession. His Worship brought up the matter of sending a message to the King, and it was decided to draft a cablegram conveying the homage of the citizens.

The 62nd band and the Artillery band, which will parade with their regiments in the morning have been engaged to take part in the firemen's torchlight procession in the evening, and the St. Mary's Carleton Cornia band for the afternoon. The City Cornet band will probably turn out with the militia.

The Catholic societies will assemble on King Square at 8.15 a. m. and parade to the Cathedral. Coronation Service in Centenary. Arrangements have been completed for the united Coronation service to be held in Centenary church on Thursday at 9 a. m. The services will be under the direction of Joseph Clawson, who has been engaged to sing a choir of 40 or 50 voices. After the opening of the service the Doxology will be sung and there will be an invocation by Rev. A. B. Read, president of the Evangelical Alliance. Dr. Flanders will lead in prayer, and Rev. J. Chas. B. Appel will read the Scripture lesson. Rev. David Hutchinson will preach the sermon. The musical service will include the National Anthem.

The Columbian Fair. While the attendance at the Columbian Fair last evening was not a record one a large number took advantage of the opportunity to attend. The weather was comparatively fine, although the showers of the afternoon left the grounds in a wet condition. The different booths and the several attractions on the grounds and in the building were well patronized, and the patrons voted the fair one of the most enjoyable held here in recent years. The different games, dress good numbers, and competition for the prizes was keen. The fair will be carried on this evening and each night for the remainder of the week. On Thursday the fair will be open in the afternoon and evening, and it is expected that it will prove one of the most popular attractions for the holiday.
