

THE SOLDIERS IN ST. JOHN ENTHUSIASTIC

Demonstrate willingness to fight for Empire—Regulars here from Fredericton—Other activities.

The activity at the army yesterday demonstrated the willingness of the men of St. John to rally to the defence of the city, or go on foreign service to fight the foe of the empire. At half-past eight in the morning the bugle call summoned the officers and men of the composite battery of the 3rd Regiment Canadian Artillery to arms. At that time eighty men were on hand and the balance of the battery of 118 men who have been recruited were busy engaged preparing to join the ranks. The selected men were paraded and drilled, taking to their work with enthusiasm.

The call for volunteers to form a composite battery for permanent service met with a fine response, over two hundred men of the regiment offering to enlist, and others would have offered their services today had not the officers decided they had more than enough volunteers from which to make a selection.

Address to Men

At ten o'clock the company was fully organized and lined up for drill. Major Magee who is in command, addressed the men, explaining that while they would have to be prepared to remain on duty in Canada indefinitely, they would have an opportunity to volunteer for foreign service if Canada sent troops abroad.

While the artillerymen were lined up a detachment of forty-six men from the Royal Canadian Infantry arrived from Fredericton and were given an enthusiastic reception. The detachment which is under the command of Major Hamilton Grey and Capt. Roscoe were sent here at the request of the customs authorities, and will be on duty at the port in the interests of the customs and shipping. Major Grey with his detachment and a number of men took up quarters in the customs house yesterday, while the rest of the detachment took up quarters at the barracks.

Sergeant McMillan and a party of ten men took charge of the four 4.7 guns brought here from Ottawa, and moved them to the Barrack square yesterday afternoon.

In the afternoon the artillery men were again paraded and drilled. Officers of the battery under the direction of Col. Armstrong and the general officers of the regiment were busy all day making preparations for forming a permanent camp and were busy, and requisitioning cooks and clerks.

Another matter which is engaging the attention of the officers of the regiment is that of recruiting enough men to put it on a war footing. Many former members of the regiment announced their intention of rejoining and a large number of men have made application to join.

28th Dragoons

Col. H. H. McLean, commanding the 28th New Brunswick Dragoons left for Ottawa last evening to confer with the militia authorities. Recruiting officers of the regiment report that the number of men making application to join is increasing rapidly. Already about seventy-five recruits for the local squadron have sent in their names, and while definite information about the rural districts is not forthcoming, it is said the rural squadrons will be brought up to war strength without difficulty. In the absence of Col. McLean recruiting will be continued under Major C. H. McLean who arrived from Boston last evening.

Col. McAvity of the 62nd Fusiliers was a busy man yesterday, and his recruiting officers report that a large number of men have offered to enlist should the regiment be mobilized for defence.

Instructions from the commanding officer of the sixth division, Col. Humphreys of Halifax received in the city yesterday were said to relate to routine matters.

Most of the officers and men of the artillery were at the army last evening, but aside from the routine work of organization nothing of importance was done. Quite a crowd of citizens also visited the army in the evening.

A detachment was placed in charge of the guns brought from Ottawa, but the rest of the men aside from those detailed for special duty were allowed to go home for the night.

8th Hussars

Several of the officers of the 8th Princess Louise Hussars left yesterday for Moncton, where they were called to attend a meeting by the officer commanding, Lieut.-Colonel J. A. MacDonnell. The officers leaving were Major A. J. MacKham and Wm. Campbell and Captains Wm. Simon, L. P. D. Tilley, Percy Fairweather, and W. J. Brown. There has already been some recruiting done by some of the officers of the squadrons of this regiment, which will very likely have increased its establishment to war strength.

Dr. W. W. White, formerly Lieut.-Colonel in command of the artillery and for four years mayor of St. John, has wired the minister of militia offering his services either for duty as an officer in active service or as a member of the medical staff.

St. Louis Browns After Pitcher.

Haverhill, August 4.—Negotiations which it is expected will be completed within a few days, are progressing between the Haverhill New England League club and the St. Louis Americans for the purpose of pitcher "Dixie" Southern of the local team. An offer of $2,500, it is understood, has been made for the local pitcher, Southern to remain with Haverhill until the close of the season.

MARCH OF EVENTS IN GREAT EUROPEAN WAR HAS BEEN RAPID

June 23.—Archduke Franz Ferdinand, heir to Austria's throne, and his wife were assassinated by Servians in Bosnia (a province taken by Austria from Turkey, in 1908.)

June 28.—Warlike demonstrations in Vienna and other Austrian cities against Serbia and the Servians.

July 23.—Austria sent an ultimatum to Serbia giving her 48 hours to comply with these demands: That an apology be made for the assassination; that societies devoted to promoting Servian nationality be suppressed; that officers implicated in the plot against Archduke Ferdinand be punished; that the plotters be tried by Austrian courts.

July 24.—Russia requested Germany for an extension of the time named in Austria's ultimatum.

July 25.—Austria declared Serbia's answer "unsatisfactory" and broke off diplomatic relations with Serbia, the Austrian Minister leaving Belgrade at the moment the 48 hours expired. King Peter of Serbia and his Government declared Belgrade for the interior. Russia ordered the mobilization of her army.

July 26.—Austria sent the Servian Minister at Vienna his passports and fishing began between Austrian and Servians on the Danube.

SECOND STAGE

The Great Powers Involved

July 27.—Exchange of notes between the German emperor, ally of Austria, and the Czar of Russia, the Czar being asked to explain his mobilization. Both sides massing men.

July 28.—The Czar announced he would defend the soil of Serbia as it was his own.

Austria declared war on Serbia, stating that it was "compelled to proceed to safeguard its rights and interests."

Each race wishes to gain a footing on the Mediterranean. Serbia, backed by Russian influence, through her advancement by victory with the other Balkan states in the Turkish war, proved the match that started the flame. The other great nations became involved by reason of their political alliances. Germany, Austria and Italy form the triple alliance. Italy has declared herself neutral, holding that she is bound to ally Austria only when the latter is waging a defensive war. Russia, France and England form the triple entente.

TORTURED BY CONSTIPATION

"Fruit-a-lives" Cured Paralyzed
Bowels and Digestion

St. Boniface de Shawinslan, Que., Feb. 3rd, 1914.

"It is a pleasure to me to inform you that after suffering from Chronic Constipation for 12 years, I have been cured by 'Fruit-a-lives'."

While I was a student at Berthier College, I became so ill I was forced to leave the college. Severe pains across the intestines continually tormented me and it came to pass when I could not stoop down at all, and my Digestion became paralyzed. Some one advised me to take 'Fruit-a-lives' and at once I felt a great improvement. After I had taken four or five boxes, I realized that I was completely cured and what made me glad, also, was that while I was taking them, I was able to do my work as usual.

Another activity was added the Imperial's list last night. The Manager's suite of offices were donated to the patriotic Scotchmen in town, who are organizing a company of Scottish Infantry, with a view to permanent establishment. There were numerous applications.

Mrs. Cowgill of Estancia, New Mexico, U. S. A., is in the city, the guest of her son, F. B. Cowgill and Mrs. Cowgill, 155 King street east.

IMPERIAL THEATRE IS CIVIC CENTRE

Big House of Entertainment distributing point-Scotchmen organizing in Manager Golding's offices.

The Imperial Theatre is at once a place in which to soothe one's overwrought nerves, and to become fully acquainted with the latest moves of the opposing forces in Europe. The latter privileges comes through the courtesy of the newspaper "offices."

Large crowds filled the big auditorium again yesterday afternoon and evening, and immense throngs swarmed about the bulletin boards, war maps and picture boards.

The show the Imperial has for today is splendid. It includes a Mary Pickford comedy entitled, "A Rich Revenge," and a heart-rending Vitaphone in two reels, "The Right of Way," in which Norma Talmadge and Leo DeLaney play the leads. There is still another good feature, a George Ade fable in slang, pictured. Miss Blaisdell is continuing to please in her concert numbers, and the Vissochi Boys with their organetto accordions are a continual hit. New song and new music today.

Another activity was added the Imperial's list last night. The Manager's suite of offices were donated to the patriotic Scotchmen in town, who are organizing a company of Scottish Infantry, with a view to permanent establishment. There were numerous applications.
