

TWO GOVERNORS

UNITED IN THE CEREMONIAL OF EXHIBITION OPENING

Monday made a wonderful change in the interior of the exhibition buildings. Early Monday morning the staff and the exhibitors were at work and they toiled vigorously all day, and they toiled with the show and getting the spaces into order. The results of the day's work was most apparent, and, save for a little finishing here and there, all is complete, and the exhibition stands as the best yet held.

At 10 o'clock there was a fair gathering of people before this hour a guard of honor from the 62nd Fusiliers had reached the grounds and was drawn up in front of the main entrance. The guard was under command of Captain J. O'Neil. The guard was inspected by Major M. B. Edwards, adjutant of the corps. Shortly afterwards Baroness arrived bringing his honor Lieut.-Gov. McLean, his honor Lieut.-Gov. Daly of Nova Scotia and party.

The gubernatorial party was escorted by President McLaughlin and the exhibition directors to the band stand in the annex. On the platform were Gov. McLean, Gov. Daly, Hon. L. J. Tweedie, Hon. A. D. Dunn, Mayor Sears, President D. J. McLaughlin, Sheriff Sturges, George Robertson, M. P. P. Dr. Thomas Walker, Ald. White, J. V. Ellis, M. P. Engineer, Kinship, W. H. Thorne, Col. Clark, A. D. C. to Gov. Daly, Ald. Allen, Ald. Maxwell, Wm. Shaw, M. P. Hon. L. E. Baker of Yarmouth, Judge King, Judge Landry, Judge McLeod, B. B. Barker, secretary to Gov. McLean, S. B. Hall, Ald. McLeod, Ald. Stickleton, Col. Zachary, M. P. Ald. Christie, H. A. McKenna, M. P. P. Henry Gallagher, D. J. Purdy, M. P. Hon. R. J. Ritchie, John McLeod, M. P. P. Chamberlain Sandell, Hon. E. B. Mitchell, Ald. Ross, Col. O'Neil, Lt. Col. Markham, Major Sturges, A. D. C. to Gov. McLean, and quite a number of ladies.

President D. J. McLaughlin was the first speaker. As he stood there he said, his mind reverted to the late President of the association, the late Mr. W. C. Pittfield. He had passed away since the last exhibition and it was fitting and right that a moment be devoted to his memory. It was largely to his efforts that the success attending the association was due. He was a gentleman of kind and generous impulses, who in his quiet way, did a great deal of good, a good merchant and an excellent citizen, his loss was keenly felt and it would be long ere his place was filled.

He did not agree with Mr. McLaughlin that the lumber lands were being depleted. There was an immense tract of land, the most beautiful, and with proper care he felt that in the next 25 years they could be more valuable than that territory. He closed by expressing his conviction that this exhibition would surpass its predecessors.

He was received with loud applause. He said he had great pleasure in receiving an invitation to open the exhibition. It was not advisable to perform his duty in this respect prematurely. He would be pleased first to hear several speakers, and then to perform his duty. He was warmly received. He said it was an honor to him to be asked to participate in the ceremonial of opening this great international exhibition. He wished to express his thanks to the commission for the exhibition and to Governor McLean for his endorsement of it, and his courteous expressed desire for a few remarks from him.

He asked his hearers to look on him not as a stranger but as a kindly neighbor, bearing not only a kindly interest in Nova Scotia's welfare but as a representative man bearing the feelings of the people of Nova Scotia for the entire and complete success of this exhibition. These two great maritime provinces of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick adjoining as they do, and possessing as they do many important industries in common should be and are only desirous each for the prosperity of the other. They cannot but progress hand in hand and under the bonds of the happier and more contented world they be. He had come here to express his interest in the exhibition and to wish to see, hear and learn much that would be helpful. An exhibition was soon to be held in Halifax and he wished to learn much that would be of value there, which he could carry home and add increase to it. He would be glad to see, hear and learn much that would be helpful. An exhibition was soon to be held in Halifax and he wished to learn much that would be of value there, which he could carry home and add increase to it.

He said that for the people of New Brunswick he had a great deal to say. The province contained men of energy, push and determination. So characteristic was this that it had developed through-out Canada. He spoke in this connection of the great fire of 1877 and how St. John had become a new city more than restored, richer and prouder, a commercial metropolis in the maritime provinces. He said that he would only wish to add not only for himself but speaking for the people of Nova Scotia, and for the prosperity of New Brunswick in all its interests, agricultural and commercial.

The provincial secretary when he had finished his remarks had a great deal to say. He expressed the sincere regret of President Robertson for his inability to be present. All were pleased to have Lieut.-Gov. Daly present and to hear the kindly words he had said. He was glad to see the exhibition and to see the people of the local government that Governor Daly had honored St. John and New Brunswick by his presence. He had been here about three days and would be able to see at least this leg about St. John. (Laughter.) Mr. Tweedie, who had been here at the loss of President Pittfield, he was a most energetic man and to him a great deal of the success of the exhibition was due. The present association was not lacking in energy and vigor. Speaking of exhibitions he said that he was not lacking in energy and vigor. sounded from machinery hall, the engines started and all was in full swing. The government and party then toured the buildings and grounds viewing the exhibits with much interest.

No exhibition tickets are sold up town this year. Visitors will purchase their tickets at the gate. In order to avoid delay, the attendance on the first window will make change only. The ticket sellers do not make change. If the public will kindly note this fact there need be no confusion or delay.

The 62nd Band played the following programme in the afternoon: Quick-march, Concord; waltz, Happy Thought; selection, Village Quartet; march, Mophasset; overture, Exhibition; march, Victory Slow; polka, Happy Dreams; galop, Hanoor.

The paid attendance yesterday was 590. This is below the mark of last year, when the figure was 1,200, but there was not a great number expected at the opening night. The company was great, the amusement hall running and the exhibition complete in all details the attendance will come up to the first performance in Amusement hall was given last evening, and there was a good gathering of spectators for opening night. The art gallery this year is in charge of Mr. J. C. B. It is the right man in the right place. The restaurant shows great improvement over former years. The ladies of Trinity church, however, are doing a noble work for the poor, and are providing excellent meals, most pleasantly served.

Today the live stock and agricultural products exhibition will be opened. The out door free exhibition will be given. At 2.30 there will be a better making competition, also the judging of the agricultural products. At the afternoon concert by the Carleton Cornet Band, the trained animals at 7.30 on the grounds, other out door entertainments, and the amusement hall performance at 8.30.

And now the woman who spent her last cent on fur coats wishes she had saved her money for duffly summer finery.

When we do not like a person, we are not apt to ask for a bill of particulars when a friend says that that person doesn't amount to anything.
