The following summary of the proceedings of the council was received:

Since the last monthly meeting of the board, the council has held two meetings, at which the following business was transacted:

The attention of the council having been called to the advisability of taking measures to have the rate of postage on drop letters reduced to one cent par capual to one caput par capual in the board's letter on the matter of dredging the entrance to the harbor. President merry had been received.

Mr. Jarvis said that Col. Tucker was evidently in error when he made the statement that the government had granted a sum for the work. As parliament was about to convene, Mr. Jarvis thought the matter should be pressed.

The president made some observations and joined the personnel and joined the personnel to which he was attached when he volunteed to which he was attached when he was wounded. A large Martini bullet struck him in the night hip and ledged in the skin. He was sent to hospital and thought it was all up with him. At Kimberley he was given up.
