

FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

SALISBURY

Salisbury, N. B., May 9.—There was a large attendance at the North River-Montague, United Baptist church on Sunday afternoon. Before the church service the pastor, Norman A. MacNeil performed the rite of baptism at the North River, near the church, when three adults were immersed. The weather on Sunday was exceptionally fine and the ordinance of baptism was witnessed by many people.

Lieutenant and Mrs. George Chapman are in town on Saturday and Sunday with their children. Mr. Chapman is a member of the local Y. M. C. A. and will spend a few weeks at their week-end home assisting with farm work.

Y. E. Gowland, John Kennedy, J. O'Neill and N. E. Shaper, traveling salesman, came in from Nova Scotia on Saturday and spent Sunday at their homes in Hillsboro.

Mrs. Hazen Pollard and two children of Hampton, who have been enjoying a visit here with Mrs. Pollard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Taylor, returned home on Saturday.

Mrs. Daniel J. O'Neill returned home on Saturday from a pleasant visit with her mother, Mrs. O'Neill, in Hillsboro.

Doctor E. B. Reade of Moncton, who is in Salisbury on Saturday attending a business meeting of the Salisbury Black Fox & Fur Company, Limited, will be in town on Sunday.

H. C. Barnes is able to be about again after a rather severe illness.

Private Peter Duhay, late of Massachusetts, who returned to New Brunswick to enlist, was in Salisbury on Saturday to take his train to St. John to rejoin his battalion. Private Duhay has been making a short visit with his brother, William, and John at Grand Falls, Albert county.

Heber Ryan, of Pettitoc, was in Salisbury last week, the guest of his cousin, E. L. Perkins.

Smelt, which were plentiful in the Pettitoc river all last week, had dropped down stream again.

Of the several hundred silver black fox puppies in the ranch of the Salisbury Black Fox & Fur Company, Limited, here, two of the litters at least, are numerically phenomenally large, there being nine puppies in each litter.

Norton, N. B., May 9.—Mrs. Wasson, of Boston, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Kilmister.

Mr. and Mrs. Warner Burt and family, of St. John, are spending a few days with friends and relatives here.

Sergeant Clarence Gillies, of the 114th Battalion, has returned to Halifax and is visiting friends in Norton.

Vernon Keirstead, of the 104th Battalion, and Mrs. Keirstead and family, of St. John, are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Perkins.

Miss Edna McManus, of Hampton, is the guest of Mrs. J. W. Campbell.

Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Inglis, daughter and son, of Pettitoc, are visiting Mr. Inglis' mother, Mrs. A. M. Inglis.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Llewellyn Perkins, of St. John, are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Perkins.

Mrs. James Gallagher is visiting friends and relatives in St. John.

Percy Myers, of the 114th Battalion, is spending a few days at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Myers.

Rev. R. H. Stewart has returned from F. E. Leland, where he was called on account of the illness and death of his sister, Miss Stavers.

CHIPMAN
Chipman, May 9.—E. W. Alexander, St. John, formerly principal of the school here, was in town over Sunday and was given a hearty welcome by his many friends. While here he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Branscombe.

Senator King left on Monday for Ottawa.

Lieutenant E. A. Porter, St. John, is spending a few days this week with his mother, Mrs. Robinson Porter.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fiddler, of Hillsboro, are the guest of her daughter, Mrs. William Fiddler.

A marriage of interest to friends here was that of Albert Babin, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Baird, of this town, and Miss Hazel Black, Guelph (Ont.), at Guelph on Saturday, April 9. Mr. Baird's many Chipman friends will extend congratulations.

Miss Helen Farris, Waterloo, is the guest of relatives in the village.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Nelson, Moncton, spent a few days this week with Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Branscombe, on their way to Vancouver, where they expect to reside.

The death of Miss Irma Darrach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Darrach, occurred on Wednesday at her home here, after only a few days illness of appendicitis. Miss Darrach was only nineteen years old, and had almost completed her first year of teaching. Much sympathy is felt for the sorrowing family.

Arthur Jenkins is spending a few weeks with his brother in Boston.

Mrs. R. J. Pihl entertained informally on Wednesday evening for her guests, Mrs. E. D. King, Mrs. T. Jones, who enjoyed the evening very much. Those enjoying the evening were, Miss Margaret Porter, Miss Marion Dunn, Miss Nellie Harper, Miss Ida Harper, Miss Bessie Orchard and Miss Jessie McEwen.

Miss Ida McNeil spent part of last week in Fredericton.

Miss M. Logan, Gibson, was the guest of friends in the village on Sunday.

Mrs. P. T. Flewelling is in St. John for a few days this week.

The Red Cross box forwarded by the local society for April contained forty-five pairs of socks and eleven hospital socks, besides several contributions from outside districts.

Mrs. E. A. Branscombe left on several weeks visit with friends in St. John.

The entire community was shocked to hear this morning of the death of Norman Mungall, at Fredericton last night. Mr. Mungall had only been ill a few days, and his death came as a great surprise and shock to everyone. Mr. Mungall spent several years in Chipman at the time of the building of the Trans-continental railway, and made many friends, who will all sympathize with his wife and family. Mrs. Mungall was Miss Laura Darrach of this town. Miss Della Darrach left on Friday for Fredericton to be with her sister.

Grand Falls, May 9.—The annual business meeting of the Boy Scout Association was held on Monday. Rev. J. C. Crabtree, the retiring secretary-treasurer, read a report on the work of the association during the past year. The report showed the largest amount of money received and expended of any year since the organization of the troop, the receipts being $345.84 and the expenditures, $338.79.

Scoutmaster Wright reported on the work done during the past year and of the excellent showing they made at the summer camp at Chipman, where they were camped in the woods. The officers elected for the next year were: President, Rev. Father Joyner; vice-president, Rev. W. K. Reade; secretary-treasurer, Rev. F. E. Perkins; scoutmaster, Mr. W. K. Wiggins; assistant scoutmaster, Rev. E. B. Reade; and Rev. W. K. Reade; finance committee, Mrs. J. L. White, Mrs. W. R. Wright, Misses Praser, Messrs. Hechler and Wright.

GRAND FALLS

Grand Falls, May 9.—The annual business meeting of the Boy Scout Association was held on Monday. Rev. J. C. Crabtree, the retiring secretary-treasurer, read a report on the work of the association during the past year. The report showed the largest amount of money received and expended of any year since the organization of the troop, the receipts being $345.84 and the expenditures, $338.79.

Scoutmaster Wright reported on the work done during the past year and of the excellent showing they made at the summer camp at Chipman, where they were camped in the woods. The officers elected for the next year were: President, Rev. Father Joyner; vice-president, Rev. W. K. Reade; secretary-treasurer, Rev. F. E. Perkins; scoutmaster, Mr. W. K. Wiggins; assistant scoutmaster, Rev. E. B. Reade; and Rev. W. K. Reade; finance committee, Mrs. J. L. White, Mrs. W. R. Wright, Misses Praser, Messrs. Hechler and Wright.

A very enjoyable dance was given in McLaughlin's hall on Monday evening in honor of the soldiers who were home from the front.

Roy Whelpley, Moncton; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McGibbin, Woodstock; Mr. and Mrs. Joel Williams, St. Stevens; Mrs. George Osborne, Mrs. L. Richards, Miss Emma Richards, Limestone; Mrs. John Porter, Houlton; Mrs. H. B. Kirkpatrick, Carleton; were in town on Friday to attend the funeral of George H. West.

Among those who attended themselves for overseas service at the meeting on Saturday night was Kenneth West, youngest son of the late Mr. West. He is only eighteen and is in the 114th Battalion.

Lieut. Dever spoke of the recent death of the young widow's father and of the two sons of a widowed mother going out to fight. He said it should bring a blush of shame to the faces of older and luckier men. He then called for three cheers for Kenneth West, which were very heartily given.

The band of the 114th has come and gone and the citizens of this town have nothing but praise for them. They were an orderly, well-disciplined band and all in their power to please and they succeeded. On Sunday afternoon the band presented an outdoor concert, as at first planned, but it rained and the concert was postponed.

The programme was as follows: God Save the King.

Church choir.

Waltz, "Mercedita."

Romance for trombone.

Glow Worm (By request).

Waltz, "The Old Home on the Farm."

God Save the King.

Private Hector Gagnon, Joseph Bell, Walter Bradley, William Stroses are visiting here.

Mrs. Charles Olinde, of Perth, has been for the past week the guest of Mrs. F. W. Olinde.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wright, of Gileville, spent Sunday in town, the guests of their son, George.

Arthur Wade is spending his vacation in town, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Edw. Laidlaw.

Hillsboro, N. B., May 9.—Miss Rosa Daley, of Riverside, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Frank Gillespie during the past week.

Miss Mable Morrison, of St. John, was the guest last week of Mrs. Orin Dawson.

Gilbert Dawson has accepted a position in the Bank of Nova Scotia, some time in Covendale.

Miss Nellie Wallace is spending some time in Covendale.

Mrs. Dwight Taylor is the guest of her parents, Miss Darrach, in Hillsboro.

J. H. Berrie was in St. John last week, the guest of his sister, Mrs. J. H. Berrie.

Miss Mildred Murray, of Albert, was in town several days of last week.

Rev. Kenneth Campbell, of Grand Falls, and Harold Clark have returned to St. John.

Mrs. Annie Tower is the guest of her sister, Mrs. A. Edgett Harvey.

Mrs. Jack Gagnon, of Moncton, is visiting in town.

Miss Lulu Duffy, of Sussex, visited friends here on Friday last.

Mrs. J. B. Monahan and Mrs. M. L. Latchy, of Moncton, are guests of Dr. and Mrs. Dash on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Steves and family were guests at the home of Gulliver Steves on Sunday at Weldon.

The mission band of the First Baptist church met on Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. (Doc) Somers, of Moncton, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Bruce Steves last week.

Mrs. C. J. Osman visited her son, Conrad, at Mount Allison University, Sackville, recently.

Mrs. (Capt.) Miedell and two little sons, Ditmar and Rolf will leave this week to join Captain Miedell in Norway, where they will work in the factory.

Mrs. Edgar West, of Moncton, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Bruce Steves.

The Ladies Aid, of the Methodist church will meet this week at the home of Mrs. William Robertson.

Miss Ella Beatty and Lewis Beatty were in Moncton on Saturday.

On Friday afternoon, the Ladies Village Club was delightfully entertained at Mrs. Osman's home, "Grandinien." The day, being Mrs. Osman's birthday, was

ROCKVILLE

Rockville, N. B., May 9.—The annual business meeting of the Boy Scout Association was held on Monday. Rev. J. C. Crabtree, the retiring secretary-treasurer, read a report on the work of the association during the past year. The report showed the largest amount of money received and expended of any year since the organization of the troop, the receipts being $345.84 and the expenditures, $338.79.

Scoutmaster Wright reported on the work done during the past year and of the excellent showing they made at the summer camp at Chipman, where they were camped in the woods. The officers elected for the next year were: President, Rev. Father Joyner; vice-president, Rev. W. K. Reade; secretary-treasurer, Rev. F. E. Perkins; scoutmaster, Mr. W. K. Wiggins; assistant scoutmaster, Rev. E. B. Reade; and Rev. W. K. Reade; finance committee, Mrs. J. L. White, Mrs. W. R. Wright, Misses Praser, Messrs. Hechler and Wright.

A very enjoyable dance was given in McLaughlin's hall on Monday evening in honor of the soldiers who were home from the front.

Roy Whelpley, Moncton; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McGibbin, Woodstock; Mr. and Mrs. Joel Williams, St. Stevens; Mrs. George Osborne, Mrs. L. Richards, Miss Emma Richards, Limestone; Mrs. John Porter, Houlton; Mrs. H. B. Kirkpatrick, Carleton; were in town on Friday to attend the funeral of George H. West.

Among those who attended themselves for overseas service at the meeting on Saturday night was Kenneth West, youngest son of the late Mr. West. He is only eighteen and is in the 114th Battalion.

Lieut. Dever spoke of the recent death of the young widow's father and of the two sons of a widowed mother going out to fight. He said it should bring a blush of shame to the faces of older and luckier men. He then called for three cheers for Kenneth West, which were very heartily given.

The band of the 114th has come and gone and the citizens of this town have nothing but praise for them. They were an orderly, well-disciplined band and all in their power to please and they succeeded. On Sunday afternoon the band presented an outdoor concert, as at first planned, but it rained and the concert was postponed.

The programme was as follows: God Save the King.

Church choir.

Waltz, "Mercedita."

Romance for trombone.

Glow Worm (By request).

Waltz, "The Old Home on the Farm."

God Save the King.

Private Hector Gagnon, Joseph Bell, Walter Bradley, William Stroses are visiting here.

Mrs. Charles Olinde, of Perth, has been for the past week the guest of Mrs. F. W. Olinde.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wright, of Gileville, spent Sunday in town, the guests of their son, George.

Arthur Wade is spending his vacation in town, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Edw. Laidlaw.

Hillsboro, N. B., May 9.—Miss Rosa Daley, of Riverside, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Frank Gillespie during the past week.

Miss Mable Morrison, of St. John, was the guest last week of Mrs. Orin Dawson.

Gilbert Dawson has accepted a position in the Bank of Nova Scotia, some time in Covendale.

Miss Nellie Wallace is spending some time in Covendale.

Mrs. Dwight Taylor is the guest of her parents, Miss Darrach, in Hillsboro.

J. H. Berrie was in St. John last week, the guest of his sister, Mrs. J. H. Berrie.

Miss Mildred Murray, of Albert, was in town several days of last week.

Rev. Kenneth Campbell, of Grand Falls, and Harold Clark have returned to St. John.

Mrs. Annie Tower is the guest of her sister, Mrs. A. Edgett Harvey.

Mrs. Jack Gagnon, of Moncton, is visiting in town.

Miss Lulu Duffy, of Sussex, visited friends here on Friday last.

Mrs. J. B. Monahan and Mrs. M. L. Latchy, of Moncton, are guests of Dr. and Mrs. Dash on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Steves and family were guests at the home of Gulliver Steves on Sunday at Weldon.

The mission band of the First Baptist church met on Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. (Doc) Somers, of Moncton, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Bruce Steves last week.

Mrs. C. J. Osman visited her son, Conrad, at Mount Allison University, Sackville, recently.

Mrs. (Capt.) Miedell and two little sons, Ditmar and Rolf will leave this week to join Captain Miedell in Norway, where they will work in the factory.

Mrs. Edgar West, of Moncton, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Bruce Steves.

The Ladies Aid, of the Methodist church will meet this week at the home of Mrs. William Robertson.

Miss Ella Beatty and Lewis Beatty were in Moncton on Saturday.

On Friday afternoon, the Ladies Village Club was delightfully entertained at Mrs. Osman's home, "Grandinien." The day, being Mrs. Osman's birthday, was

ROCKVILLE

Rockville, N. B., May 9.—The annual business meeting of the Boy Scout Association was held on Monday. Rev. J. C. Crabtree, the retiring secretary-treasurer, read a report on the work of the association during the past year. The report showed the largest amount of money received and expended of any year since the organization of the troop, the receipts being $345.84 and the expenditures, $338.79.

Scoutmaster Wright reported on the work done during the past year and of the excellent showing they made at the summer camp at Chipman, where they were camped in the woods. The officers elected for the next year were: President, Rev. Father Joyner; vice-president, Rev. W. K. Reade; secretary-treasurer, Rev. F. E. Perkins; scoutmaster, Mr. W. K. Wiggins; assistant scoutmaster, Rev. E. B. Reade; and Rev. W. K. Reade; finance committee, Mrs. J. L. White, Mrs. W. R. Wright, Misses Praser, Messrs. Hechler and Wright.

A very enjoyable dance was given in McLaughlin's hall on Monday evening in honor of the soldiers who were home from the front.

Roy Whelpley, Moncton; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McGibbin, Woodstock; Mr. and Mrs. Joel Williams, St. Stevens; Mrs. George Osborne, Mrs. L. Richards, Miss Emma Richards, Limestone; Mrs. John Porter, Houlton; Mrs. H. B. Kirkpatrick, Carleton; were in town on Friday to attend the funeral of George H. West.

Among those who attended themselves for overseas service at the meeting on Saturday night was Kenneth West, youngest son of the late Mr. West. He is only eighteen and is in the 114th Battalion.

Lieut. Dever spoke of the recent death of the young widow's father and of the two sons of a widowed mother going out to fight. He said it should bring a blush of shame to the faces of older and luckier men. He then called for three cheers for Kenneth West, which were very heartily given.

The band of the 114th has come and gone and the citizens of this town have nothing but praise for them. They were an orderly, well-disciplined band and all in their power to please and they succeeded. On Sunday afternoon the band presented an outdoor concert, as at first planned, but it rained and the concert was postponed.

The programme was as follows: God Save the King.

Church choir.

Waltz, "Mercedita."

Romance for trombone.

Glow Worm (By request).

Waltz, "The Old Home on the Farm."

God Save the King.

Private Hector Gagnon, Joseph Bell, Walter Bradley, William Stroses are visiting here.

Mrs. Charles Olinde, of Perth, has been for the past week the guest of Mrs. F. W. Olinde.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wright, of Gileville, spent Sunday in town, the guests of their son, George.

Arthur Wade is spending his vacation in town, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Edw. Laidlaw.

Hillsboro, N. B., May 9.—Miss Rosa Daley, of Riverside, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Frank Gillespie during the past week.

Miss Mable Morrison, of St. John, was the guest last week of Mrs. Orin Dawson.

Gilbert Dawson has accepted a position in the Bank of Nova Scotia, some time in Covendale.

Miss Nellie Wallace is spending some time in Covendale.

Mrs. Dwight Taylor is the guest of her parents, Miss Darrach, in Hillsboro.

J. H. Berrie was in St. John last week, the guest of his sister, Mrs. J. H. Berrie.

Miss Mildred Murray, of Albert, was in town several days of last week.

Rev. Kenneth Campbell, of Grand Falls, and Harold Clark have returned to St. John.

Mrs. Annie Tower is the guest of her sister, Mrs. A. Edgett Harvey.

Mrs. Jack Gagnon, of Moncton, is visiting in town.

Miss Lulu Duffy, of Sussex, visited friends here on Friday last.

Mrs. J. B. Monahan and Mrs. M. L. Latchy, of Moncton, are guests of Dr. and Mrs. Dash on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Steves and family were guests at the home of Gulliver Steves on Sunday at Weldon.

The mission band of the First Baptist church met on Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. (Doc) Somers, of Moncton, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Bruce Steves last week.

Mrs. C. J. Osman visited her son, Conrad, at Mount Allison University, Sackville, recently.

Mrs. (Capt.) Miedell and two little sons, Ditmar and Rolf will leave this week to join Captain Miedell in Norway, where they will work in the factory.

Mrs. Edgar West, of Moncton, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Bruce Steves.

The Ladies Aid, of the Methodist church will meet this week at the home of Mrs. William Robertson.

Miss Ella Beatty and Lewis Beatty were in Moncton on Saturday.

On Friday afternoon, the Ladies Village Club was delightfully entertained at Mrs. Osman's home, "Grandinien." The day, being Mrs. Osman's birthday, was

ROCKVILLE

Rockville, N. B., May 9.—The annual business meeting of the Boy Scout Association was held on Monday. Rev. J. C. Crabtree, the retiring secretary-treasurer, read a report on the work of the association during the past year. The report showed the largest amount of money received and expended of any year since the organization of the troop, the receipts being $345.84 and the expenditures, $338.79.

Scoutmaster Wright reported on the work done during the past year and of the excellent showing they made at the summer camp at Chipman, where they were camped in the woods. The officers elected for the next year were: President, Rev. Father Joyner; vice-president, Rev. W. K. Reade; secretary-treasurer, Rev. F. E. Perkins; scoutmaster, Mr. W. K. Wiggins; assistant scoutmaster, Rev. E. B. Reade; and Rev. W. K. Reade; finance committee, Mrs. J. L. White, Mrs. W. R. Wright, Misses Praser, Messrs. Hechler and Wright.

A very enjoyable dance was given in McLaughlin's hall on Monday evening in honor of the soldiers who were home from the front.

Roy Whelpley, Moncton; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McGibbin, Woodstock; Mr. and Mrs. Joel Williams, St. Stevens; Mrs. George Osborne, Mrs. L. Richards, Miss Emma Richards, Limestone; Mrs. John Porter, Houlton; Mrs. H. B. Kirkpatrick, Carleton; were in town on Friday to attend the funeral of George H. West.

Among those who attended themselves for overseas service at the meeting on Saturday night was Kenneth West, youngest son of the late Mr. West. He is only eighteen and is in the 114th Battalion.

Lieut. Dever spoke of the recent death of the young widow's father and of the two sons of a widowed mother going out to fight. He said it should bring a blush of shame to the faces of older and luckier men. He then called for three cheers for Kenneth West, which were very heartily given.

The band of the 114th has come and gone and the citizens of this town have nothing but praise for them. They were an orderly, well-disciplined band and all in their power to please and they succeeded. On Sunday afternoon the band presented an outdoor concert, as at first planned, but it rained and the concert was postponed.

The programme was as follows: God Save the King.

Church choir.

Waltz, "Mercedita."

Romance for trombone.

Glow Worm (By request).

Waltz, "The Old Home on the Farm."

God Save the King.

Private Hector Gagnon, Joseph Bell, Walter Bradley, William Stroses are visiting here.

Mrs. Charles Olinde, of Perth, has been for the past week the guest of Mrs. F. W. Olinde.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wright, of Gileville, spent Sunday in town, the guests of their son, George.

Arthur Wade is spending his vacation in town, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Edw. Laidlaw.

Hillsboro, N. B., May 9.—Miss Rosa Daley, of Riverside, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Frank Gillespie during the past week.

Miss Mable Morrison, of St. John, was the guest last week of Mrs. Orin Dawson.

Gilbert Dawson has accepted a position in the Bank of Nova Scotia, some time in Covendale.

Miss Nellie Wallace is spending some time in Covendale.

Mrs. Dwight Taylor is the guest of her parents, Miss Darrach, in Hillsboro.

J. H. Berrie was in St. John last week, the guest of his sister, Mrs. J. H. Berrie.

Miss Mildred Murray, of Albert, was in town several days of last week.