[To the Associated Press.]
New York, July 13, p. m.
The reservoir which gave way yesterday, causing the freshet in Western Massachusetts, was situated in Middlefield, and covered one hundred acres. The damage to property is extensive, the Boston and Albany Railroad alone suffering to the amount of $150,000.

Reports from various sections of the country report the rain fell yesterday the heaviest showers for many years.
During the severe thunder shower Saturday evening, the house of Levi Harrison, in Trumbull, Conn., was struck by lightning, and Mr. Harrison, aged 27 years, his wife, and daughter aged 3 years were all killed.

A despatch from the English Admiralty, by cable, has been received in Panama, announcing that the vessels comprising the British fleet in the Pacific are ordered to rendezvous forthwith at Panama, for special reasons not yet made public.
London, July 13.
A violent thunder storm on Saturday caused several fatal casualties.

ADJOURNMENT OF PARLIAMENT.

Disraeli said in the House of Commons, last evening, that he hoped Parliament would be in a condition to adjourn on the 5th of August.

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

In relation to the Public Worship Regulation Bill he declared he was uncompromisingly opposed to the resolution of which Mr. Gladstone gave notice the 9th inst., because they were aimed against a settlement upon which religious liberty depended. The resolutions in question oppose a definite settlement of points now in dispute, and the clothing of Bishops with power to establish uniformity in regard to the conduct of public worship.

THE EMPEROR ALEXANDER.

has returned to St. Petersburg.
Advices from Germany report the attempted assassination of Bismarck by a young man who shot at him in the street, the shot grazing his wrist. The assassin was a cooper by trade, named Kollmann, a member of the Catholic Workers' society of Magdeburg. The assassin was arrested.
