Just them the surgeon who had opreated only the Irishman came into the room and said: "Has anybody seen my hat?"

Pat fainted.

No more money, no more Swiss.

Under such conditions what s most needed is some enterprise on the part of its local capitalists. They must make the first advance in the nucertain field of development. They must capitalize small factories and see that they are kept employed. When the local business is finally developed and proves to the world that they are successful then outsite enterprises will

No one is obliged to live where he s not suited. If one hasn't an encouraging word for the business enterprise and institutions of his town, he should shut up and "go 'way back an dist down". If things don't suit you, move to where they will. A growler and sorehead in a town is an enterprise killer every time, it would pay a town to donate $5 and tell him, to move.
