

Delays for pleading to opposition, &c.

XVI. The delays for pleading, answering and replying as regards such opposition, and the manner and time of foreclosing and proceeding in every matter incident thereto, shall, if the case be in the Superior Court, be the same as in an action in that Court,--if the case be an appealable one in the Circuit Court, they shall be the same as in an action in any such case,--and if the case be a non-appealable one in the said Court returnable in vacation, they shall be the same as in an action in such case :--the delay to plead to any such opposition shall reckon from the expiration of the delay allowed for filing the opposition;--A tariff of fees on such oppositions or proceedings incident thereto, may be made from time to time in like manner as in other cases, but until such tariff is made, the tariff applicable to the action to which the opposition relates, shall be applicable to proceedings incident to such opposition.

Fees on such oppositions.

Execution.
If no opposition be filed in time.

XVII. If no opposition be filed at the Office of the Prothonotary or Clerk, within the delay allowed for that purpose, the facts as alleged in the action or demand, shall be deemed to be acknowledged and confessed by the defendant, and duly proved, and the Judgment recorded shall become executory after the expiration of the delay allowed by law for the issuing of execution in the Court in which the Judgment was rendered, reckoning such delay from the service of such Judgment.

If the opposition be maintained.

XVIII. If any such opposition be maintained by reason of any irregularity in the proceedings on the part of the Plaintiff in his action, the Court may, in maintaining such opposition with costs, condemn the Plaintiff to such further costs, not exceeding those deposited by the opposant on filing his opposition, as the Court in its discretion may see fit.

As to opposi-
tions in the Magdalen
Islands.

XIX. Any such opposition filed in the Circuit Court in the Circuit of the Magdalen Islands, to any Judgment rendered in any case by default or ex parte for an amount exceeding Fifty Pounds, shall, as regards pleading, answering and replying and the delays therefor, and as to all proceedings incident to such opposition, be considered as an appealable case in the Circuit Court.

Opposition
may be filed
before service
of the judgment.

XX. Any defendant may, before the service of the judgment recorded against him, file such opposition as aforesaid with his exhibits in support thereof, in the office of the Prothonotary or Clerk of the proper Court, and deposit therewith the costs to be refunded to the plaintiff, with the copy of the opposition for him; but such defendant shall, in that case, give notice to the plaintiff of the day on which the opposition has been filed,--and the delay for pleading shall be reckoned from the service of such notice.
