Campbell marker gives Rep win

Doug Campbell started the new year with a bang. Campbell fired in his third power play goal of the season with a minute left in the game to lead the Baby Ventures of the Mississauga Reps Juvenile AA Division to a 3-2 New Year's Day win over Dorset.

Campbell, along with left-winger Vito Amato and right-winger Scott Laughton have amassed 39 points in six games. Amato accounted for one goal and two assists against Dorset while Laughton figured in two assists.

When Reps downed Nats 6-1, Campbell fired four goals while Amato notched five assists and Laughton tallied three assists. The other Mississauga markers came from Dave Leonard and Bill Barnes.

MINOR BANTAM AA
 Dataline lost a 5-2 decision to Marlies in their outing. Reps goals were driven in by S. Healey and K. Schmidt.

In their next outing, Dataline overpowered Toronto Blues 5-1. Schmidt accounted for two goals while singles came from Healey, B. Nunn and T. Kwiciec.

MINOR PEEWEE AA
 Glenn Clarkson prevented the shutout for Rex Lumber when they were downed 3-1

by Young Nats.

Reps came from behind in the last three minutes of play to eke out a 2-1 tie with Royal York. Clarkson and Scott Kerr accounted for Mississauga's goals.

PEEWEE A
 Bruce Behrend's penalty shot goal proved the difference as Richardson's For Sport came from behind to edge Royals 3-2. Other Mississauga markers were Karl Wren and Gordon Smyth.

Reps dropped their second game of the season when they lost a 4-3 squeaker to North Toronto. Mississauga markers were registered by Daryl Holland, Anthony Tanti and Jeff Kostick.

MINOR ATOM A
 Mississauga skated to a 5-2 win over Malton sparked by a two goal effort from Kevin Myers. Other Rep scorers were Dave Hutchings, Dave Yuk and Ron Warzek.

Superb back checking by the Reps and a two goal effort from Hutchings combined for a 3-1 victory over Oakville. Kevin Myers notched a single for the winners.

In a hard fought contest, Mississauga tied West Mall 2-2 on tallies from Dave Sillars and Ron Warzek.

MINOR BANTAM A
 Norbie Wirkowski collected

his third shutout of the season when Peel Regional Police blanked North Toronto 5-0.

Eric Davies led the scoring with two goals while teammates Brad Marching, Mike Coffey and Richard Zerafa notched singles.

Reps battled North Stars to a 1-1 tie in their next outing. The lone Rep marker came from Kerry Leger.

MINOR PEEWEE A
 G. H. Wood, who has only been beaten once in 24 league games, continued their winning streak when they edged Olympics 3-2 and Royal Nats by an identical score.

Scoring against Olympics were Dave Shoebottom, Dale McNulty and Chris Peterson.

Reps net deniers against the Nats were McNulty, Shawn Argall and Ray Pollard.

MIDGET A
 With less than a minute remaining, Curran Valve Supply fired in two goals to squeeze by Royals 6-5. Mark Cooper tallied a deuce while John Gaudi, Mark Duck, Mark Fulton and Chris Costello drove home singles.

In their last game of 1975, Reps edged Royals 2-1. Mississauga tallies were registered by Bob Oravec and Mark Duck.

Atoms play perfect

An all round team effort by the atom Mississauga North Stars proved the key ingredient in an undefeated week of play in Metro Toronto Hockey League action.

Mark Halpern fired a pair of goals as the North Stars opened the week with a 6-3 win over the Reps.

Vito Mondelli, Jerry Jurus, Victor Ban and Marcel Sterk added singles to complete the scoring.

In their next outing Paul Ward was high man with a pair of goals as they downed Clarkson 5-1.

Jeff Mueller, Mondelli and Ban scored the other markers.

PEEWEE

The North Stars capped a perfect week with a 10-0 win over West Mall.

Lorne Morrison paced the attack with three goals while Kim McKenney and Trevor Daniels added a pair each and Paul DeBoer, Reg Taccone and Chris Boyd added singles to complete the scoring.

The North Stars opened the week with a 2-1 win over Malton as Boyd and Jeff Kann were the markers.

Goals by Peter Ross, Barry O'Neill, Don McKenzie and Taccone paced Mississauga to a 4-2 win over North Toronto.
