

he meets me! Professor Baker & his column Wright were both asking for you two were a number of others. We went down right after dinner were back by nine p.m. I do often wish mother & father were in town when we went down!

Evidently the Parkham celebration is to be on a grand scale. The children have been pestering us to take them and are wondering what "arels" are! I wonder like especially to have John. see the parade as it would give him some idea of a political demonstration. You will not have to arrange for either Henry or me to speak!!! Saturday is one of the busiest days in the house but the Inspector arrived this morning so that danger will be out of the way.

We were out at Camps Garden last week for the first time since we came to Paris.
It must have been quite wonderful when it was in full swing.

All the children join Harry & myself in wishing best love & hoping to see you on Saturday from affectionate sister Jennie
