

CHAPTER II.—ETCHING (continued).

	FACING PAGE
St. Peter , from an etching by Callot	64
Four subjects etched by Simon Guillaïn, from Caracci's "Cries of Bologna"	68
The Angler , from an etching by Ostade	70
Les Environs de Southampton , from an etching by Gaucherel, after Dupré	72
À Mèstras , from an etching by A. Queyroy	74

CHAPTER III.—WOOD ENGRAVING.

Samson Slaying the Lion , from a woodcut after Dürer	80
Two woodcuts by Lützelburger, from Holbein's "Dance of Death"	82
Venus and Cupid , after a woodcut by Jost Amman	84
Illustration of Woodblock by Bewick, and wood engraving from same	86
Two fable subjects, from wood engraving by Bewick, and copper engraving by Causé	88

CHAPTER IV.—WOOD ENGRAVING. THE VICTORIAN FAC-SIMILE SCHOOL.

The Dipping Place , from a wood engraving, by Dalziel, after Birket Foster	94
Cleopatra , from a wood engraving by Dalziel, after F. Sandys	98
Until her Death , from a wood engraving by Dalziel, after F. Sandys	100
The Dervise , from a wood engraving by Dalziel, after A. Boyd Houghton	104
The Withered Flower , from a wood engraving by Dalziel, after A. Boyd Houghton	106
Madam Blaize , from a wood engraving by Dalziel, after G. J. Pinwell	108
The Great God Pan , from a wood engraving by Dalziel, after Leighton	110