

be educated and trained in the science of love and devotion to Eucharist work.

Children are treated as at home. They look upon their companions as brothers, loving and respecting each other. They are very happy in this home where they must spend at least four uninterrupted years, broken only by a few weeks vacation each year.

The situation is all that could be desired from a sanitary point, surrounded by beautiful country scenery, and pure fresh air, easy of access to, and of communication with Montreal.

The chapel has been decorated with a beautiful royal mantle which overhangs the altar, making this little country chapel resemble our chapels of adoration.

The garret has been transformed into a large, airy, well lighted dormitory.

All the necessary alterations and fixtures are complete, and now it remains to support and carry on the good work, and especially, to pray that the vocations which we cultivate be worthy of the Master whom we all wish to serve in love and humility.
