STOCK GOSSIP.

In writing to advertisers, please mention the Farmer's Advocate.

The attention of our readers is directed to the announcement in another column of the 12th annual Fat Stock and Dairy Show in Guelph, Ont., on Dec. 10th, 11th and 12th. This promises to be a fitting finale to the great Canadian show-yard events of 1895.

In this issue will be found W. C. Shearer's (Bright) advertisement of choice Barred Plymouth Rock cockerels, pullets, and one-year hens, bred from imported stock. This presents an opportunity to secure a breeding pen to start with, or even a cheaper start could be made by purchasing a nice and profitable flock of farm poultry. The Barred Plymouth Rocks are excellent winter layers, when eggs are high in price; the hens are fine, quiet mothers. The chicks are easily fattened, and can be turned off early before the market is glutted.

HORSE BUSINESS BRIGHTENING.

Graham Bros., Claremont, Ont., write:—“We recently consummated one of the most important sales of horses made in Canada for some years. Mr. F. R. Black, of Amherst, N. S., acting for the Nova Scotia Government, purchased the Canadian champion Hackney stallion of 1895, Kilnwick Fireaway 36998, and the choice Hackney stallion, Seagull 2261, besides two very promising Hackney fillies, daughters of Seagull. Kilnwick Fireaway 36998, foaled July, 1890, by Lord Swansland 1831, dam Trip 6251, by Tripaway 2296, is a beautiful dark bay with black points, stands 15 2 and is a fine actor, with perfect knee and finehock action. He captured sweepstakes both at Toronto and Ottawa this fall. Seagull 2261, by the great Danegalt 174, dam Lady Lucy 1646, is a perfect Hackney in conformation, and while not as good an actor in the show ring as Fireaway, has proved himself a remarkable breeding sire—the Hackney characteristics being stamped on his colts. To Mr. Forgie, of Washington, Pa., we sold the imported Clydesdale mares, Daisy and Evergreen, which took first at Montreal and Ottawa exhibitions, and the black saddle gelding, Gentleman Jack; to G. P. Smith & Bro., Hagerstown, Maryland, the Hackney stallion, Dundrennan, and to Mr. A. Montgomery, of Castle Douglas, Scotland, we recently shipped a handsome team of half-bred Hackney five-year-old mares. We have also just sold to John Miller & Sons, Brougham, the grand Clydesdale filly foal, Bonnie Bess, by Queen's Own, at a long price; we regard her as being the best Clydesdale we have ever bred. Our stock are all doing well, and business brightening.”

MESSRS. A. & D. BROWN'S SHORTHORNS AND OXFORD DOWNS.

A short drive from the Village of Iona, Ont., is the fine five-hundred-acre property of Messrs. A. & D. Brown. These gentlemen have been breeding Shorthorn cattle and shipping cattle and sheep for the English markets the last twenty years, generally grazing off from one to two hundred steers every summer, and but recently made a large shipment of lambs to the Old Country. The Shorthorn herd is not large, but much care and judgment has always been exercised in selecting, feeding, and mating; therefore it is not to be wondered at that the present stock is of a high standard and comprises some twenty five individuals of a very useful type. A grand imported bull, Warfare 6712, bred by S. Campbell, Kinellar, Scotland, was used on the herd the past few years, and left some remarkably fine stock. He has recently been replaced by a massive three-year-old red imp. bull, Royal George, bred by the late S. Campbell, Kinellar, Aberdeen, Scotland, and imported by Arthur Johnston, Greenwood, Ont. He is by Royal George (54973) and from Maid of Primrose 8th. His calves are now beginning to drop, and give promise of turning out good ones. A bull of the celebrated Lavender family was used before Warfare, and from which are the older heifers and some of the cows. Among the cows some of the best are: Charlotte (imp.) 11008, bred by S. Campbell, Scotland, imported by John Isaac, Markham, Ont.; she was sired by Gravesend (46461), and from Cecilia 1st, by Borough Member (35189). A two-year-old daughter of hers, Strathguy imp. Reporter—6424—is a straight, square-built, evenly-fleshed heifer; and in Heather Blossom by Warfare we found another worthy daughter of the old imported cow. Probably one of the best cows of the herd, of general utility, is Ruby Syme by Lavender Victor 12329, dam Anna Syme. Ruby Syme is an exceptionally good milker for a Shorthorn, and some of her daughters are now for sale. Leda Keiso by Lavender Victor, dam Ruth Keiso—15604—; Clara Syme—15301—by Pilot 4061—, dam Anna Syme—13980—by Duke of Rutland; and Laura of Iona, are all good cows and grand breeders. We saw three young bulls about ten months old, from the three last-named cows and by imp. Warfare; and a better trio I have seldom seen our lot to see—deep, rich roans, thick-fleshed, strongly-built, with plenty of good bone, and full of quality and character, deep-ribbed and level-backed, with exceptionally fine heads, and a general style that would recommend them as the head of almost any herd. These young bulls will no doubt go quickly, as will also a few choice heifers noticed.

The Oxford Downs number some forty head, and are descended from imported Murray stock, and combine fair quality with good size. A few strong, stocky ram lambs are still on hand.

NOTICE.

Many farmers' sons look forward to the winter season as one of release from farm toil, which is a grand change from the twelve and fourteen-hour days of more than half the year. We know from experience that this rest from labor is none the less appreciated when some line of improving study is taken up and pursued vigorously. The Central Business College, Toronto, presents an opportunity of obtaining a practical business education, without which a farmer or any other business man is seriously handicapped through life. The cost of a term is within easy reach. See ad. in this issue, and send to Shaw & Elliott for free catalogue.
