had not. The more fortunate "Pat" told his friend he was driving his pig to Cork. "Where—to Cork?" In a whisper Pat told him not to speak so loud, for the pig thinks he is going to Waterford.—"Peter Lombard," in Church Times.

LITTLE KINDNESSES.

You gave on the way a pleasant smile, And thought no more about it; It cheered a life that was sad the while, That might have been wrecked without it; And so for the smile and its fruitage fair You'll reap a crown some time— somewhere. You spoke one day a cheering word, And passed to other duties; It warmed a heart, new promise stirred, And painted a life with beauties. And so for the word and its silent prayer You'll reap a palm some time— somewhere. You lent a hand to a fallen one, A life in kindness given; It saved a soul when help was none, And won a heart for heaven; And so for the help you professed there You'll reap a joy some time— somewhere.

FEELING MUST FOLLOW CONVICTION.

Feeling, of course, has its due sphere in the religious life of the soul, and a very important and attractive sphere that is. Its duty is to recognize the beauty of truth; and without this tender and engaging recognition, which feeling only can give, the hard, logical sense of truth as truth would be a poor, and I almost said, an impotent thing for the elevation of the soul. But then feeling must follow, it must not precede, conviction, or it will soon get us into trouble. When people begin to say to themselves: "How beautiful this or that doctrine is!" without concerning themselves with the prior question of its truth, there is no saying where they may not wander amid the paths of error. And when feeling, not resting upon the sense of truth, cries, "Lord, Lord," it is not the soul itself which speaks; the cry represents not a truth which rules a personal spirit, but an impulse, longer or shorter, playing upon its surface, and certainly not controlling or representing its real drift.—Canon Liddon.

A POSER.

THE CANADIAN NORTH-WEST

HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS.

Any even numbered section of Dominion Lands in Manitoba or the North-West Territories, excepting 8 and 26, which has not been homesteaded, or reserved to provide wood lots for settlers, or for other purposes, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one quarter section, of 160 acres, more or less.

ENTRY.

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situate, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa, the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him. A fee of $10.00 is charged for a homestead entry.

HOMESTEAD DUTIES.

A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required by the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act and the amendments thereto to perform the conditions connected therewith, under one of the following plans—

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years.

(2) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased) of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

(3) If a settler has obtained a patent for his homestead, or a certificate for the issue of such patent, countersigned in the manner prescribed by this Act and has obtained entry for a second homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by residence upon the first homestead, if the second homestead is in the vicinity of the first homestead.

(4) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

The term "vicinity" used above is meant to indicate the same township or an adjoining or cornering township.

A settler who avails himself of the provisions of Clauses (2), (3) or (4) must cultivate 30 acres of his homestead, or substitute 30 head of stock, with buildings for their accommodation, and have besides 80 acres substantially fenced.

Every homesteader who fails to comply with the requirements of the homestead law is liable to have his entry cancelled, and the land may be again thrown open for entry.

APPLICATION FOR PATENT.

Should be made at the end of the three years, before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent, or the Homestead Inspector. Before making application for patent, the settler must give six months' notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands, at Ottawa, of his intention to do so.

INFORMATION.

Newly arrived immigrants will receive at the Immigration Office in Winnipeg or at any Dominion Land Office in Manitoba or the North-West Territories, information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge, free of expense, advice and assistance in securing land to suit them. Full information respecting the land, timber, coal and mineral laws, as well as respecting Dominion Lands in the Railway Belt in British Columbia, may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa, the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, Manitoba, or to any of the Dominion Land Agents in Manitoba or the North-West Territories.

It was a long letter, in which the writer complained of the gentleman's smartness, and wound up as follows: "If we're the dullest set of boys you ever met, why do you ask such posers? Why don't you give us a chance? You ax us questshuns as men couldn't answer. Any fule can ax questshuns. I'll ax you one of feyther's: If it takes 3 hundred and forty-five and a half yards of white codderoy (corduroy) to mak a hefant a black waistcoat, how long would it take a lame black betle to crawl thre a barril of treakle? There, answer that!"
