

Further provisions if the ship is at or near such port.

majority of shares in such ship, or from their duly appointed agent or agents, setting forth the name of the person appointed in lieu of the former master, who shall be named in such declaration; the said declaration shall be made and subscribed in the presence of the Registrar or collector of customs if the declarant or declarants reside within five miles of the custom house of the port of registry, but if beyond that distance, in the presence of any Registrar or collector of customs in Her Majesty's dominions, or of any Justice of the Peace; and in addition to such declaration, the Registrar of Shipping or collector of customs at the port where the change is requested to be endorsed, may require to be produced a certified copy of the register, or such other evidence as he may deem necessary, as proof of the ownership of the ship; and in case the ship is at or near such port, he shall, on the demand of a majority of the owners thereof, require the master or any other person in the possession of the certificate of registry to produce and deliver the same to him; and in default of the same being forthwith produced and delivered up to him he may detain the ship, and not allow her to proceed to sea until the same has been produced and delivered up to him; and every person having possession of the certificate of registry of a ship registered in Canada, and refusing or neglecting to produce and deliver up the same to any Registrar of Shipping or collector of customs requiring the same to be produced and delivered up to him under the provisions of this section, shall incur a penalty of five hundred dollars.

Registrars and Collectors to keep records of endorsements of changes of Master.

20. Every Registrar of Shipping and every collector of customs shall keep a record of every endorsement of a change of master made by him on the certificate of registry of a ship, and shall specify in such record the date of such endorsement, the name of the ship, the official number of the ship, the port of registry of the ship, the name of the old master, the name of the new master, and whether or not he has a certificate of competency or a certificate of service, and, if he has either of such certificates, the number thereof; and every such record shall be kept in the office of the Registrar of Shipping or collector of customs making the same, or his successor as such, and shall, at all times during the usual office hours, be open to all persons for inspection, without fee or reward.

Change of managing owner to be registered.

21. Upon the managing owner, or any of the managing owners (if more than one) of a ship registered in Canada being changed, or, if there be no managing owner, upon the ship's husband being changed, the newly appointed managing owner or owners or ship's husband shall forthwith give notice of such change to the registrar of the ship's port of registry, who shall register the same accordingly; any managing owner or ship's husband who fails to comply with the requirements of this section shall incur a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars.
