Ottawa Government Has Nothing to Do With Dewdney's Veto.

DEBATE ON THE TARIFF

Innes Will Renew His Plea for the Establishment of a Mint.

[From Our Special Correspondent.] OTTAWA, Ont., May 31.—There is a misapprehension on the Pacific coast as to why Lieutenant-Governor Dewdney withheld his assent from the Alien bill, and the impression might be created that the Dominion government instructed him to do so. The facts are Lieutenant-Governor Dewdney wrote to mentioned by Baldwin in the statement.
