Double Wedding at Berwick

Berwick, N. S., May 29—A very interesting event took place this afternoon in the Baptist church, when the marriages of Miss Nellie Erdine, and Miss Nina Burpee, daughters of the late Charles L. and Mrs. Illsley, occurred. The former became the wife of Lewis Leander Bishop, of Seamans, Sask., and the latter the wife of George Henry Merle, Magee, Somerset, Kings Co.

The church was prettily trimmed with evergreen, and an arch had been erected in front of the pulpit, which was also of evergreen and daffodils, and a white bell of flowers hung in the centre. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. W. Robbins, assisted by Revs. Messrs. R. H. Bishop and W. H. Spencer, Presbyterian, Waterville.

Punctually at half-past one, to the strains of the wedding march which was played by Mrs. R. N. Clark, sister of the brides, the wedding party came in. Miss Nellie was given away by her brother, Fred Illsley of Somerset, and Miss Nina by another brother, Earl Illsley, of Falmouth. Both brides were gowned in white silk and wore the conventional bridal attire. Nellie carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley, and Nina American beauty roses. The ushers were R. N. Clarke, Berwick, and Harding Bishop, Wolfville.

Despite the heavy rainstorm the church was packed to the doors with friends, many of whom had come a long distance to witness the ceremony. Afterwards a reception was held in the vestry, and then the two couples left on the afternoon express for a short trip through the Province.

Mr. and Mrs. Bishop will leave shortly for their home in the West, and Mr. and Mrs. Magee will reside in Somerset. Both brides' traveling suits were navy blue with hats to match. The presents were numerous and consisted of gold coin, cheques and other valuable articles.
