J. S. Donahue has returned from a trip east.

Mrs. J. C. Pope has left for Seattle on a visit.

Hugh Robson of Winnipeg was in the city this week.

Vote in every case for the Provincial Rights candidate.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Angus have returned from the east.

Two hundred sacks of flour have been sent to Fernie from this city.

Dr. Low has returned to the city from his summer cottage at Long Lake.

Hon. F. W. G. Haultain speaks at the R.N.W.M.P. barracks tomorrow night.

A. E. Whitmore was brought into the city last night and is progressing favorably.

Mah Po, the well known Chinaman has gone to Saskatoon where he will engage in business.

Dr. Morell has now quite recovered from the effects of his recent operation and has left the hospital.

W. J. Leahy addressed a good meeting for Major Whitmore at Bratt's Lake on Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Buchanan, of London, Ont., were in the city over Sunday on their way to the coast.

A fire in the stock yards caused by a spark from an engine gave the brigade a run on Sunday afternoon.

Dr. W. D. Cowan arrived home on Monday from attending the meeting of the Dominion Dental Association at Ottawa.

St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church held a lawn social on the grounds at the old government office buildings last evening.

P. McAra, jr. returned last evening from Long Lake. Mrs. McAra and children will remain there for some time holidaying.

A splendid meeting was held at Camden last night. It is reported that Sinton will not get more than two votes at that poll.

It is reported that the government has offered the position of Deputy Commissioner of Agriculture to Prof. M. Cummings of Truro, N.S.

If you want to vote at the Dominion elections you must get your name on the provincial voters' list. See to it yourself personally.

Y. S. Huff, B.A., who has been a member of the staff of the Regina Collegiate Institute, has accepted the principalship of the North Battleford schools.

Miss E. M. Fennell, graduate nurse, left this week for Dubuc, where she will spend a month visiting relatives, before returning to the city to engage in her profession.

The change of advertisement for the New York Dental Parlors, Scarth street, over Howe's jewelry store, came to hand too late for this issue. Watch for announcement next week.

Two public campaign meetings are to be held in the city tonight. Mr. Haultain and Mr. Laird will address a meeting in the skating rink, and Mr. Scott and Mr. Boie a meeting in the city hall.

The Regina races started Tuesday. There was only a small attendance. Four events were pulled off, the 2.40 pace or 2.35 trot; the 2.20 pace or 2.15 trot; the mile dash and the Boys' pony race.

Word reached the city on Monday evening that Mr. A. E. Whitmore was ill at Milestone with a hemorrhage of the stomach. Dr. Whitmore, Dr. Nyblett and a nurse left for that point yesterday morning to be in attendance.

Clarence Smith, who has been with C. H. Gordon & Co., for the past two years, has accepted a position as travelling salesman for Saskatchewan for Messrs. T. Ryan & Co., the wholesale boot and shoe dealers, of Winnipeg.

The death took place on Monday evening of Donald Hector McLean, aged eighty-two years. Deceased came west about eight years ago and engaged in farming but retired to the city five years later. He has a number of relatives in this vicinity.

James A. McKinnon, of Edmonton, was recently reported by the Edmonton Bulletin to have left that city for the coast to visit his mother who was seriously ill. Mr. McKinnon is a Liberal organizer and instead of going to see a sick mother is in Saskatchewan doctoring up the sick Scott cause.

A meeting of the board of governors of the provincial university will be held on the 20th when the special committee that was making enquiries regarding the appointment of a president will submit its report. It has been reported that a Halifax gentleman may be recommended by the committee.

A good deal of the stock which was in the wholesale liquor store of G. W. Fraser & Co., was sold under direction of the sheriff on Saturday and Monday. A large number of cigars were auctioned off by the box, and the lucky purchasers are now smoking ten cent cigars which only cost them two cents each. E. B. Andros handled the gavel.

It is not necessary to be on the list to vote at this election on Aug. 14th, but you must be on the list to vote at any election which may be held thereafter. If a by-election comes on next month or the Dominion election is held this fall, you cannot vote unless your name is on the list. Be sure your name is on the list and retain your franchise.

The Ames meeting in the city hall on Saturday evening resulted in a crowded house. The views shown were a distinct adjunct to the address delivered by Mr. Ames and the truths about the maladministration of our western land, timber, minerals and fishery resources plainly shown to the audience. We will give a detailed account of Mr. Ames' address at a later date.

Cutting has commenced in some parts of the province and will be general next week. There was a slight fall of hail at Regina on Sunday night, but so far we have not had any reports of damage done. In some parts there are signs of a little rust but it is not thought that it amounts to much. A general estimate of the wheat goes to show that there will probably be an average wheat yield for the province of over 30 bushels to the acre.

Minard's Liniment cures Diphtheria.
