Ald. Shaw has given notice of the introduction of a bylaw at next meeting of the council to define the uses to which Alexandra Park is to be put. The object of the bylaw is really to reserve the park, which is situated between Broad and Osler, as a place of amusement for children.

Thomas Bosworth, an Englishman, resident in the city, has offered his services as caretaker of the bathing house at Wascana Lake. Bosworth holds a gold medal from the Royal Life Saving Society and a silver one from the St. John's Ambulance Association. He also acted as swimming and life saving instructor to the Derby Police.

The Canadian Northern Railway system are to occupy one-third of the railway building at the Canadian National Exhibition to be held in Toronto August 27 to September 12. There will be a great deal of literature concerning the western provinces distributed by the railway people, and Mr. Hawkes, the industrial agent of the Canadian Northern Railway, has written to the secretary of the Board of Trade here, asking for literature of Regina and district. Arrangements have been made to forward a supply of advertising matter so that the visitors to the Great National Exhibition held at Toronto will be able to form some idea of what inducements Regina and district can hold out as compared with the other districts of the province.

A Big Legacy.
Miss Jessie Bryant, a school teacher in Prince Albert, has received word that she has been left a legacy of $68,000 by a wealthy uncle in Texas. Two brothers, J. F. Bryant, of Regina, and J. L. Bryant, of Moose Jaw, will receive similar legacies.

Harry Roberts Drowned.
Harry Roberts, an employee in the city post office, was drowned in Wascana Lake Monday morning. Roberts and Grant McNeil went out to the lake where McNeil was to teach Roberts to swim. While McNeil was getting a plank to assist Roberts while teaching him to swim the deceased plunged into the water at the end of the wharf. The body was not recovered for some hours. Roberts came from Denfield, Ont. This makes the third drowning accident in three weeks.

Street Railway Route.
In accordance with a request made by the city council Commissioner McPherson submitted a sketch of what he considers should be the route of the street railway to members of the Works Committee last evening. It suggested lines along Dowdney from the Exhibition Grounds to Broad, along Albert from Dowdney to Sixteenth, along Eleventh from Albert street to market building, on South Railway from Scarth to Osler and on Scarth from South Railway to Eleventh. The plan seemed to meet with the general approval of the aldermen present.

Keep Minard's Liniment in the house.

Later Day Saints.

On Thursday Mathew Ulrich, an Italian boy of about 14 years of age, was drowned in Wascana Lake. The deceased was bathing with some other lads in a portion of the lake away from the part reserved for bathers. A young lad, Bert Shaddock, dived and secured the body. Herbert Gardner brought the body ashore, but all attempts at resuscitation were in vain.

Home From Camp.
The 11th Light Horse returned from the big camp at Sewell on Saturday morning. This camp was the best ever held in Western Canada. All the arms of the service were represented, and the cavalry numbered about twelve hundred. Sir John French said it was the best cavalry he had seen in Canada. The 95th returned from Long Lake Saturday night, where they had been for two weeks' hard drill. Lieut. Russell, of Osborne Barracks, was instructor at the Long Lake camp.

Domination Day.
Plenty of amusement was provided for the people of Regina on Domination Day. The regatta at Wascana Lake was very interesting and attracted thousands of people. The firemen's sports were held in Dominion Park and a large crowd watched an interesting programme. The Turf Club gave a matinee, which brought out a number of good horses. The Standard road race was won by Forsythe, of Caron, the winner of the Telegram road race.

Big Attractions For Fair.
An airship and automobile races are the latest additions to the programme of the forthcoming provincial fair. Secretary L. T. McDonald has announced that the arrangements made by him while on his recent trip south have now culminated in the definite engagement of an airship and aviator. The machine will be one of the now famous Curtis make and this attraction will undoubtedly be the star feature of the fair. Arrangements are also now pending for the engaging of an expert wireless telephone operator, the intention being to send a message from the clouds to Sir Wilfrid Laurier, who it is hoped will be present at the opening.

The aeroplane demonstration will be made from the large area inside the race track, beside the grand stand. As yet, it is too early to give times of the various flights intended, but these will be arranged shortly. As though this new addition to the programme was not a crowning triumph, the management made the announcement that all arrangements are now complete for the auto races. A series have been arranged to take place during the holding of the exhibition after supper. Cars eligible to compete are 25 and 40 h.p., and a free-for-all. In addition to money races for each competition, cups will also be given, while the prize for the free-for-all will be a magnificent challenge cup. It has also been arranged to hold a motor-cycle competition and the total value of prizes for the auto events will amount to over $1,000.

Slater-Culham.
Marguerites and palms were used profusely in the decoration of the Rosedale Presbyterian church this afternoon, where the marriage took place of Miss Lorna Constance Culham, eldest daughter of the late J. A. Culham, of Hamilton, and of Mrs. Culham, of Roxborough street east, and Mr. James H. Slater, of Regina, Sask., son of the late M. Slater, of Hamilton. About fifty guests witnessed the ceremony, which was conducted by the Rev. Daniel Strachan. The bride was brought in by her brother, Dr. Hubert Culham, and looked charming in an embroidered liberty satin gown trimmed with pearls and real lace. Her tall veil was held by the spray of orange blossoms, formerly used by her mother, and she carried a bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley, and wore the groom's gift, a necklace set with turquoise and pearls. Her sister Miss Olive Culham, was her only bridesmaid, wearing mauve satin paillette gown, with mauve picture hat veiled with Maltese lace, and carrying mauve sweet peas. Her gift was a gold bracelet. Mr. Robert Slater, of Hamilton, who supported the groom, and the ushers, Mr. Arthur Howitt, of Hamilton, and Mr. Hamilton Stuart, of Toronto, receiving gold breast pins. Mrs. Culham held a reception afterwards at her home in Roxborough street, where the house was a bower of marguerites. The hostess received in a French gown of taupe silk, with Honiton and Duchesse lace and touches of heliotrope velvet. She wore a hat to match with violets and a black real lace mantle and carried a bouquet of mauve sweet peas. Mr. and Mrs. Slater leave on the evening-fifteen train this evening and will spend their honeymoon in the States, the bride traveling in a brown silk gown with hat to match.—Toronto News.

Ottawa, July 5.—The government has decided to call for tenders this summer for a big new block to be constructed on McKenzie Avenue, facing Major Hill park. It is expected that the contract for the structure will be let this autumn, and that active construction work will commence early next spring. The building will cost from two to three million dollars.

A Woman Who Considers Her Figure

Recommends The

THE D & A.

If a woman has in her but a glimmer of the genius for dress, it will develop as fashions become more exacting. The fashions of the past two or three years—artistic beyond anything known in decades—have proved this, the way they have made women consider their figures and their corsets, as never before. And the result is not only that one sees far more attractive figures, but the corset makers, too, are inspired.
